WEATHER INDICATIONS.

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Toledo, O., March 22, 1892.

The storm area which was central over Colorado Monday has moved eastward and is to-day central over southern Wisconsin.

Snow is falling to the north and east of the center and rain in the southeast quadrant.

Following this "low" is another in the extreme northwest, with an area of high pressure spread over a large extent of country in the west.

Temperatures of 4 degrees at North Platte; 6 at Rapid City, and 14 at Dodge City, Omaha and St. Paul are about the lowest recorded.

Generally fair weather prevails throughout the Atlantic and Gulf states, with cloudiness and rain or snow east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio, especially in the region of the great lakes.

The storm center will move rapidly eastward during the day, causing brisk southerly winds, and on account of the drawing up of the warm air from the south, continued rain.

The weather to-day will be continued rain or snow; warmer, followed by colder and probably clearing Wednesday, with southerly winds, changing to westerly.

READY FOR A WAR.

Significant Movements in Russia.

General Gourko Creating Alarm in Warsaw.

Military Manouvers on a Large Scale.

Soldiers Camp Out in Freezing Weather.

Austria Feels that the Movements are Directed Against Her and Her Troops Have Been Ordered to Be Ready for Action.

Vienna, March 22.—The Austrian government is greatly disturbed by the attitude of the military men in Russian Poland. Gen. Gourko, acting, it is presumed, under orders from St. Petersburg, appears to be making preparations for hostilities against some power, whether Austria or Germany, is not apparent.

The defenses of Warsaw are being strengthened as much as possible. Persons whose loyalty is questioned are expelled from Warsaw and other Polish cities, and some are deported to Siberia.

The guards on the frontier have been reinforced and fortified camps have been established at convenient ports for a sudden movement in the direction of either Russia or Austria.

Large bodies of troops are in continual motion, and altogether the situation is calculated to stimulate anxiety both at Vienna and Berlin.

General Gourko returned a short time ago from a personal conference with the czar, and preparations have been increased since he came back to his command.

It is said that in the event of a European war the Rusisan infantry could use the old Berdan rifles with smokeless powder, as the magazine rifles now being manufactured in France will not be ready for another year at the very earliest.

A great deal of "war talk" is rife amongst the military elements in all parts of the Russian empire, which is particularly directed against Germany.

The Russian military maneuvres during the present year will be on a gigantic scale. The forces engaged will consist of the guards and the First army corps from St. Petersburg, the Grenadier corps, and the Thirteenth army corps from Moscow, the Ninth and Tenth army corps from Charkoff, and the Eleventh and Twelfth army corps from Kieff.

The troops from the two mentioned districts will form, under command of General Obrutschoff, chief of the Russian headquarters staff, the eastern army, while the remaining half will constitute the western army under General Dragoniroff.

To each army will be added four cavalry divisions, making a grand total of 200,000 of all rank.

An important experiment, designed to test the power of endurance possessed by the Russian infantry soldier in campaigning work during a period of intense cold, has lately been made in a district near the western frontier of Russia.

It was desired to discover under what degree of cold troops could camp out in tents and for this purpose eight infantry men were chosen at random. The snow, which lay deep on the ground, was levelled over a certain area, a tent pitched and its interior covered with mats, on which were laid 56 pounds of straw.

The men, accoutered in heavy gray coats and Wellington boots, lay down to rest, using their knapsacks as pillows, at 9 o'clock in the evening. Outside the thermometer, protected from the wind blasts, then indicated 31 degrees of frost Fahrenheit. An officer remained outside all night making observations.

At one o'clock the temeprature inside the tent was 17 degrees above zero, and outside at zero. Toward morning the thermometer gradually fell without and within and at 4 o'clock marked 4 degrees below zero. Until 3 o'clock the men slept quite comfortable, but towards four, when the frost became so intense, sleep was impossible. The soldiers left their tent and ran about in the open air to prevent themselves from freezing to death.

The Russian ambassador is said to have given assurances to Austria that there is no hostile intent on the part of Russia in the extraordinary military movements in Poland, but the Austrian government is not, for that reason, ceasing to take vigorous precautions against a sudden attack.

Gen. Krieghammer, at Cracow, has been ordered to maintain increased vigilance and the troops throughout Galicia have been placed in a condition for immediate service.

Columbus, March 22.—(Special)—The supreme court this morning allowed a motion in the northern jurisdiction Masonic cases, allowing them to remain the same as in the lower courts until a decision is rendered by this court.

Well-posted attorneys say the case will be thrown out of court, as they have no jurisdiction over secret orders when such jurisdiction interferes with the life or liberty of persons connected wth the same.

MAGNANIMOUS CHILTON.

He Withdraws and Leaves the Race Entirely to Mills.

Austin, Tex., March 22.—Horace Chilton addressed a letter last night to a caucus of his friends announcing his withdrawal from the race for United States senator, thus leaving the field clear for Roger Q. Mills to pass from the lower to the upper branch of congress.

Senator Chilton assigns as his only reason for withdrawing that he finds the total vote of his friends in the legisltaure will not be sufficient to elect him, and he does not want to embarrass those who would stand by him.

SIDNEY DILLON

New York, March 22.—Sidney Dillon, president of the Union Pacific railroad, has been confined to his house, No. 23 West Fifty-seventh street, for the last week with an attack of stomach trouble, caused by chronic indigestion.

Mr. Dillon being nearly 80 years old, his illness causes much apprehension among his family and friends.

HARRISON WAS ALARMED.

Woods Got Through by But One Vote.

The Party Lash Had to be Applied in Order to Save a Judicial Nomination from Rejection.

Washington, March 22.—The senate, during its sessions last week, spent the greatest part of its time behind closed doors. The Woods case, which had been hanging fire for two months, was at last taken up, and it led to one of the most animated and protracted debates ever provoked by a single nomination.

Interest in the controversy began to grow from the day that the Indiana senators first explained the true nature of the appointment. They showed conclusively that the appointee was not worthy of judicial honors and that the president, in seeking to promote him, was at best but paying off a political debt.

They secured, in the end, the support of all their democratic colleagues, and when the vote was taken Woods had only the beggarly majority of one.

The republican senators were only half-hearted in the fight. Several of them were persuaded that Woods was an unfit man for the bench. They permitted themselves to be influenced, however, by the assertion of the president's friends that the rejection of Woods would have a bad effect in Indiana next fall. The vote was so close that the suggestion has been made that Woods, by a little better management on the part of the democrats, might have been defeated.

This is founded on a misconception of the situation. It was not possible to defeat the nomination. The appeal in behalf of the party has made matters safe on that score. But there was no republican enthusiasm for Woods and it was arranged simply that he should be confirmed. A majority of one would be sufficient for that end and the attendance of senators was in accordance with the understanding.

The president, it is said, became very anxious towards the close of the contest. He was advised of the activity of the democrats and the lukewarmness of the republicans, and his fear was that several of those republican senators whose personal dislike of himself is so pronounced might disregard the appeal made for the party and in voting respond only to their personal feelings in the premises.

It greatly annoyed him, too, to have so much and such severe criticism poured out on one of his nominations for the judiciary. He had earned some praise, even from his political opponents, for other appointments he had made to the bench, but he was plainly told that in sending in the name of Woods for circuit judge he had been guilty of an unpardonable piece of partisanship.

The democratic senators made earnest effort to have the nomination considered in open session, so that the charges against Woods might be tried before the country. The Indiana senators particularly were anxious that the widest publicity be given to everything they had to say on the subject. But the republicans objected.

Both Voorhees and Turpie were severe on Woods, who is already complaining through the press of not being fully advised of what Mr. Turpie said on the occasion. It was no fault of Mr. Turpie that his remarks did not appear in full in the Congressional Record the morning after they were delivered.

AT LARGE WITH SMALLPOX.

A Great Scare on the New York Wharves.

An Ocean Steward Wanders Around Among the People a Whole Day With His Terrible Disease.

New York, March 22.—Several members of the crew of the Hamburg steamship Gellert, who had been detained at Hoffman island since last Monday as Typhus fever suspects, were discharged and sent in a tug to the steamship company's wharf at Hoboken.

With them was a young man who had served as a steerage steward on some vessel not of the Hamburg line. He lingered about the wharf until last night, when Capt. Badenhausen, superintendent of the pier, saw him.

The captain noticed that the man's face was covered with blotches, and as the man could not talk English he called Policeman Woerner, who took the man to the police station. There was a lively exodus of curious policemen when some one suggested that the stranger was suffering from typhus fever or small-pox.

Policeman Woerner took the man back to the wharf, where he remained until Dr. Saltonstahl, of the county board of health, and Dr. Simon, the city physician, arrived and decided that the stranger was suffering from small-pox. He was put aboard a tug and sent back to Hoffman island.

All that was learned from him was that he had been given a certificate at quarantine and told to board the tug which carried the Gellert's men. The latter are more disturbed now than when it was feared they might have typhus fever.

WILL ARBITRATE.

Such is the Opinion in Washington

As to the Outcome of the Bering Complication.

An Interesting Session of the Cabinet.

Sir Baden Powell at the Capitol.

Instruction to Ocean Revenue Cutter Delayed Pending Action by the Two Contending Governments.

Washington, March 21.—Lord Salisbury's answer to Acting Secretary of State Wharton's note of March 8, was laid before the cabinet at its session today, and was the sole topic of discussion.

The cabinet met with unusual promptitude, and a few minutes after the hour of assembling (11:30 a. m.) every member with the exception of Secretary Blaine, was in his seat.

The discussion throughout was earnest, evidencing the importance of the matter under consideration, and was participated in by every member present, the president assuming a leading part.

It was sometime after 1 o'clock when the cabinet adjourned. Prior to the meeting Acting Secretary Wharton, accompanied by Sir Baden Powell, one of the Canadian agents of the commission recently in session here, called at the executive mansion and was accorded an interview with the president.

The presence here at this time of Sir Baden Powell, who was thought to be in Canada, is regarded as highly significant. The object of his visit could not be ascertained but it was no doubt in connection with the Bering sea question.

Rumor has it that he was the bearer of some official communication from the Canadian premier on the subject.

A rumor that finds many believers is that Lord Salisbury has answered the president's note, insisting on the necessity of a modus vivendi, with a counter proposition that in any modus vivendi agreed upon the United States shall engage to indemnify Canadian vessel-owners (poachers) for losses incurred thereby, provided the arbitrators finally decide that the United States has no right to prevent such sealing.

The United States has already rejected a proposition of this kind.

The treasury department has delayed the preparation of instructions to revenue cutters pending Bering Sea negotiations. Last year the original instructions sent out had to be countermanded by telegraph as the situation changed after they were delivered in San Francisco. It is the determination of treasury officials to wait this year, if possible, if the situation is finally determined. A general opinion prevails that the squall has passed over.

THE WHEELS OF TIME

Grind Not so Slow as Those of Legislation.

Ohio's Little Congress Killing Time.

Griffin Introduces a Bill for Free School Books—Gaumer's Road Improvement Bill—General.

Columbus, March 22.—(Special)—The improvement of county roads has been a question that troubled legislators for many years, but Representative Gaumer, of Richland, thinks he has solved the problem through a bill he introduced in the house yesterday afternoon.

It provides that after the passage of the bill the question as to whether or not the people want to adopt this law shall be submitted to a vote of the electors at a general election.

If it is not approved at the first election it can be submitted again on petition of 200 citizens.

It provides that each county in the state shall constitute a road district for the improvements of roads. The road commissioners, three in number, are to be appointed by the common pleas judge with the approval of the county commissioners. This board determines upon what roads shall be improved and is authorized to issue bonds for the purpose, levying a tax to meet the cost, but the tax is limited to one-five-thousandth of the duplicate in any year. The commission decides upon the character of the improvement and the material used, appoints a clerk and inspectors, and exercises general and personal supervision while the work is in progress. No part of the improvement can be made within an incorporated village or town, and the commission is prohibited from selecting parallel roads within two miles of each other, when one is improved, until the remaining roads in the county receive the benefit of the law. Each commissioner is required to devote his entire time to the duties and is to receive a salary of $2,000. When the roads in the county have been improved, the law terminates the commission and the improvements are turned over to the county commissioners, who are required to look after the matter of keeping them in repair.

Free School Books.

Yesterday afternoon Representative Griffin introduced a bill providing that school books be free to all pupils after the first of May. The following is his amendment to the present law:

"That each board of education shall furnish the necessary school books free of charge, to enable the parent or guardian, without expense therefor, to comply with the requirements of this chapter, the same to be paid for out of the contingent fund at the disposal of the board; and such levy each year, in addition, if necessary to that otherwise authorized by law, is hereby authorized and directed, as shall be necessary to furnish such school books free of charge to all the pupils attending the public schools; but such pupils as are already wholly or in part supplied with the necessary school books shall be supplied free of charge only as other or new books are needed; and all school books furnished as herein provided shall be considered and be the property of the district, and loaned to the pupils on such terms and conditions as each such board may prescribe."

Public Institutions.

Representative Taylor, of Champaign, who is chairman of the house finance committee, yesterday introduced a bill that inaugurates quite an innovation on the trustee question for the state institutions. It provides that the governor shall appoint for the insane asylums of the state and institution for feeble-minded youth a board of trustees for each, of six members, not more than three of whom shall be of the same political party. They are to serve without compensation, but receive their actual expenses in attending meetings of their respective boards.

No More Ringsters.

Senator Gear to-day introduced a bill making it unlawful for any person to enter a horse in a race out of his proper class or under an assumed name. It also provides that it shall be unlawful to disguise a horse or to withhold his record. Imprisonment in the penitentiary from one to three years or in the county jail for six months and a fine of $1,000 is imposed for violation of the law.

One-half the fine goes to the informant and one-half to the general revenue fund of the municipality.

Bills Passed the Senate.

Mr. McMaken—Giving municipalities and counties authority to institute suits against railroad companies without waiting for the state railroad commissioner to act.

Mr. Flumerfelt—Authorizing Tiffin to issue $15,000 bonds to build a bridge over the Sandusky river.

Bills Passed the House.

Mr. Porter—Permitting owners or tenants to kill robbins or yellowhammers when found injuring fruit.

This is done to protect the grape growers and their crops.

Henry County Speaks.

The house yesterday afternoon passed, under suspension of the rules, a bill introduced by Mr. Meyers, authorizing the council of Napoleon, Henry county, to issue $60,000 in bonds to build a water works and electric light plant after the sum has been adopted by a vote of the people. Mr. Meyers also secured the passage of two other bills as follows:

Authorizing the council of the village of Napoleon to transfer $1,500 from the market to the corporation fund, and the other authorizes Bartlow township, Henry county, to transfer $1,000 from the miscellaneous to the general fund. (Passed.)

Notes.

If Workman's bill introduced yesterday should become a law probate judges will have to record all births and deaths that have been omitted.

Representative Jackson wants the law fixed so that legal service may be made upon the receiver or any of his agents when appointed to take charge of the affairs of a foreign corporation.

A bill introduced by Mr. Heller yesterday afternoon providing that the construction of the river road in Providence township, Lucas county, shall be paid for upon the two mile assessment plan.

Mr. Clark, of Cuyahoga county, yesterday afternoon introduced a bill that will be quite an innovation in courts of justice, as it allows the taking of a case from the jury when it is shown that the plaintiff has not made out a just cause of action.

The house spent the entire forenoon session in discussing Mr. Pudney's bill providing for a compensation of parties that might have property destroyed by mobs or during riots. It only received six affirmative votes.

Mr. Gilliland, of Van Wert, desires that all quail shall be kept in Ohio, as he introduced a bill yesterday amending section 6961 so as to prohibit the shipping of quail outside of the state during or outside of open season.

A bill was introduced yesterday giving the shop inspector power to make improvements at the expense of the owners of buildings when the same are necessary to protect the life and health of persons occupying such buildings.

Senator Gear yesterday afternoon introduced two small road bills as follows: To create Austin township, Wyandot county, into a special road district for macadamizing purposes; to create Nevada, Wyandot county, into a separate road district.

The senate finance committee will probably cut the general appropriation bill $100,000 on account of the great deficiency to be provided for in addition to the new offices created, as well as new common pleas judge districts provided for by certain statesmen.

Representative Beard yesterday afternoon introduced a bill to promote the breeding of fine horses by allowing trotting associations to give premiums, stakes and purses and sell pools within the grounds of such association during the time that there may be contests of speed.

Among the bills introduced yesterday afternoon was one by Mr. Lambright placing both parents on an equality before the court pending divorce proceedings, and allowing children when over eight years of age to choose which parent they desired to accept. If such parent is not a competent person to care for said children the court may assign them to children's home.

The senate passed the McConnell's bill prohibiting barbering on Sunday. It provides that any person found engaged in the business of barbering on Sunday shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. On conviction thereof he shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $50, or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not less than 15 nor more than 30 days, or both fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court.

FOUR TOLEDO MESSENGERS

Of the United States Express Discharged

For Being Connected With an Organization Obnoxious to the Company—One of Them Was Crippled in Service.

For some time the United States Express company has been weeding out its messengers who had anything to do with the brotherhood the men had formed.

The weeding out process has finally reached Toledo, and the following local agents have been discharged:

T. C. Howe and Andrew J. Hoffman of the Toledo and Cincinnati run, and James M. Wall and W. Jay Fanning of the Toledo and Chicago run.

Andrew J. Hoffman is a Toledo man, living at 532 Starr avenue. He is a cripple from injuries received while on duty. He has been in the employ of the company for the past 20 years.

This makes about 25 men in all who have been discharged by the company. The officials say that no more removals will be made.

THE MONUMENT TO GRANT.

Much More Money Needed to Complete It.

The Corner Stone to Be Placed in Position on the Seventieth Anniversary of His Birthday.

New York, March 22.—At a meeting of the chamber of commerce yesterday merchants of various branches of trade passed resolutions indorsing the recent inaugurated movement for the raising of funds to complete the monument to Gen. Grant.

Committees were appointed from each branch of business represented to cause interest among citizens generally.

Gen. Horace Porter, who was present, said it was proposed to lay the corner stone of the monument April 27 next, the 70th anniversary of Gen. Grant's birthday. He estimated that $350,000 additional was needed to complete the monument, and gave it as his opinion that with well directed effort the whole amount could be raised by that time.

FANNED INTO A FLAME.

The Bribery Charges in New Jersey's Legislature.

Some Bold Statements Given to the Public.

One Hundred and Sixty Thousand Dollars Accounted for, According to the Gossip of the Street.

New York, March 22.—The Herald this morning continues its attack upon the so-called bribe takers of the New Jersey legislature, saying that the reports about the vote buying are becoming more specific.

It is related of one senator, says the Herald, that after having consented to vote for the Reading combine bill for a consideration of $10,000, he wanted more money. The agent of the friends of the measure would not give any more, and the senator finally voted for the bill.

The name of another senator who got $25,000 is claimed to be in possession of the paper.

A Herald reporter visited several members of the legislature yesterday. Senator Barker, who voted for the bill, declared that he did so because he was elected as an anti-Pennsylvania railroad man, and thought that the proposed combination would be of great benefit to the Reading railroad, and at the same time loosen the hold that the Pennsylvania railroad is supposed to have upon the people of the state. He declared that the talk of bribery was all nonsense.

Continuing, Senator Barker said that it was not necessary to buy votes for the bill, as it had friends enough to pass it without resorting to bribery.

Senator Winton, who voted against the bill, said that he did not think there had been any vote buying.

President of the Senate Adrian said that he knew nothing whatever of the matter. He declared, in regard to the declaration by Senator Rogers that he (Rogers), had been offered money to vote for the bill, that Mr. Rogers had evidently spoken for himself, if he spoke at all.

Gov. Abbett, who was in New York yesterday, was accosted by a Herald reporter, but he declined to grant an interview, and would say nothing about the matter.

A story is told of a member who had declared that no power under heaven could induce him to vote for the bill. An opponent who doubted this declaration decided to keep a watch on him, and just before the vote was called he missed his man. A search revealed the fact, so the story goes, that the man "who could not be bought" was engaged in conversation with one of the most influential politicians in the state in a record vault in the adjutant general's office. When roll was called the man voted for the bill.

It is declared by those who claim to have figured on the matter that it cost $60,000 to get the bill through the house. The senate came higher, according to these mathematicians, three of the senators having divided $75,000 in equal parts; two others getting $15,000 each and other smaller sums, no one, however, getting less than $10,000.

It is said to be the general opinion that Gov. Abbett was led into signing the bill by his desire to make political capital against Gen. Sewell, the republican leader, who opposed the bill, and who is said to be a Pennsylvania railroad man. Sewell, it is generally believed, was the means of defeating Gov. Abbett in his effort to secure election to the United States senate a few years ago.

There seems to be little hope for an investigation into the matter, though such a step is much talked about.

A man who is known as a Pennsylvania railroad lobbyist is reported to have said: "If the bill had been killed some of those fellows could buy a farm. Now they can buy two."

TOLEDO NOW TO THE FRONT

George W. Bills Rightly Honored at Buffalo.

The Lake and Straits Yachting Association Elect Him Vice Commodore—O. W. Hepburn Treasurer.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 22.—The Lake and Straits Yachting association was permanently organized at the meeting here yesterday.

Delegates were present from Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland and Buffalo and the session occupied the greater part of the day.

The constitution, by-laws, and sailing regulations of the Lake Ontario Yacht Racing association were adopted with a few necessary amendments. The election of officers, which followed, resulted in these selections:

Commodore—George W. Gardner, Cleveland.
Vice Commodore—G. W. Bills, Toledo.
Rear Commodore—F. B. Hower, Buffalo.
Acting Commodore—E. A. Davis, Detroit.
Secretary—E. D. Miller, Detroit.
Treasurer—O. W. Hepburn, Toledo.

These officers also constitute the board of managers with three delegates from each club. The first annual regatta will probably be held at Cleveland in August.

The delegates were banqueted last evening.

WAS A BIG BLAZE.

Two Hundred Thousand Dollar Fire.

A Midnight Conflagration that Consumed a Whole Block in North Cambridge.

Boston, Mass., March 22.—By a fire that started from some unknown cause after midnight last night, Henderson Bros.' immense carriage factory and repository, taking up nearly the entire block bounded by North avenue and Hadley, Russell and Orchard streets, North Cambridge, together with nearly 1,000 carriages and hundreds of sets of harness and several stores on the ground floor, was burned to the ground. Several small tenement houses on Hadley street were also burned.

John J. Henderson believes his firm's loss will reach and possibly exceed $200,000 and that the insurance will amount to probably half of that. The frame houses on Hadley street which were injured or destroyed, and a little store on North avenue which was entirely consumed, belonged to Daniel Forbes and were occupied by poor tenants, who lose their household goods. Two of the Hadley street houses were valued at $20,000 each.

The carriage factory employed 75 to 100 hands.

What the Inhabitants of this Far Off Country do for a Living and Glimpses of the Territory.

Special Correspondence Toledo Bee.

Tahkou River, Alaska, May 29, 1891.—When the morning of May 26 broke somewhat clearer, and I had a good view of the mouth of the Tahkou river and up its valley, I was wonderfully surprised at the extent of the stream that I had inferred was one of comparatively small proportions.

It was here fully a mile in width, and seemed to hold this as far as the eye could reach up the stream. Before a week had passed I was forced to acknowledge that the Tahkou river was one of the great streams of Alaska and British Columbia. There were a half dozen glaciers within a radius of a few miles of us, while all the high hill tops around were covered with snow and ice, from which more or less perfect glaciers flow down every gorge and gully. Truly it was an Arctic sight, and one calculated to frighten a novice, who probably would assume that the interior was yet worse and correspondingly hard to travel.

This deception is more or less pronounced along the whole Pacific shore line of Alaska, where the mountainous coast once more broken through, the interior gives better traveling in many ways.

We got away about 7, a good wind behind us, but the weather threatening. As we left behind the inlet, we were now traversing a region that had never been traveled by pen, pencil or photographer to give the results to the world, so we felt disappointed in the dismal weather spoiling our photographic chances.

Some four or five miles up the river a deep break in the mountains to the north gave us a pretty vista of the Tahku glacier, lying like a white wedge between the black sides of the precipitous gorge.

The Indians call this pass the Koo-dah-sake, or "The Fair Wind Gap," as through it such a breeze could always be depended upon for a morning's sail up the stream—the very wind we were now using.

About 9 we passed a single Tahku house on the south bank that looked like a pig-pen struck by an avalanche. Dogs kept coming out from various apertures on its sides, until no less than eight stood on the high bank and favored us with the usual canine chorus given strangers.

After a while an Indian who looked as if he had been squeezed between two colliding avalanches, crawled out, and, standing in the center of the scenic circle of dogs, put his hands to his mouth and wailed, "Hoochinoo!"

This hoochinoo is the native Indian liquor surreptitiously distilled from sugar and molasses, using a coal oil can for a retort, and a long kelp stock for a worm. It tastes of all these ingredients plus a fair share of the flavors usually given the freedom of an Indian cabin. A prospector assured me that it was not unlike proof Prussic acid flavored with "Rough on Rats."

Whether the Indian had any to sell or wanted to buy—the more likely of the two—we never knew, for we were just then enjoying a good sailing wind which we did not propose to lose for all the hoochinoo existing, and we never afterwards heard his voice again above the din of the dogs.

I have lived about a third of a century among Indians and have seen wildernesses and deserts of dogs, but have never seen one of that breed of any use before; and this was entirely unintentional. Silvery cascades were numerous on all sides and fairly striping some of the mountain sides. Here we also heard our first avalanches, showing that all the watery elements were breaking up.

There are several glaciers along the course of the Tahku, but only three or four reach the valley and none of these reach the river itself so as to impede its valley to transportation on that side. Even a railroad could be constructed the whole length of the river; but as to this later.

We were abreast of the first glacier on the north side by 9:30. It is really a double glacier, their feet joining in the valley, but in nearly all other aspects they are dissimilar. Hair seal were seen fishing for salmon, their favorite diet, among which they make great havoc. Ten o'clock saw us sail by the abandoned Indian village of Klame-Quah, a town that was deserted before it was built.

The rapidly thriving American town of Juneau, and the attendant work which all this activity promised them, induced them to move alongside and relinquish Klamequah. The third glacier is from the south side and the only important one from that direction. We had breasted it by noon, and on one of the numerous low islands, covered with cottonwood, we stopped for our lunch.

That day we passed several deserted Indian villages of more or less permanance. All were fishing "ranches," the occupants being farther up the valley hunting. Later they return, repair the ranches and go to fishing. At each house one will see well worn paths closely hugging the river bank, and made by the village fishermen prospecting for salmon. About 2 we came to the first noticeable contraction in the river where it swiftly flowed through low stony banks.

We got both sails fairly set to a strong wind, and by dint of severe paddling and Wagnerain war-whoops, went through like a rocket. Just beyond it widened and the doctor pronounced it fully equal to the Tennessee at Chattanooga.

Late in the evening we got a damp, unpleasant camp, but we had made 25 miles, thanks to the stiff breeze. Next forenoon (27th) we saw mountain goats on the high southern cliffs, but the Indians seemed unwilling to hunt them. These animals are numerous throughout Alaskan mountains and I have never yet traversed a range (some seven altogether) without seeing them in greater or less abundance.

The river was now getting very swift and the big canoe quivered like a high pressure steamer when polling it against the current.

The shaking of the poles against the boat's side is very trying to the nerves of the polemen, so they claim, and more exhausting than severe labor of a purely muscular character.

By 5 o'clock mountain goats were seen all around us, so that when the work got so hard, poling and paddling, that even climbing the crags after them was comparatively easy, the Indians desired to exchange, so we pulled into a small bayou on the north side to hunt the Alpine antelopes.

The nearest group was a nanny goat and her two kids, and they certainly ought to have seen us, although we did keep reasonably quiet for savages. I believe the greatest excitement in hunting them lies more in the dangerous country they roam than in any extra wise precautions necessary in stalking them.

They were from 1,000 to 1,200 feet above us, and two Indians started for them, their arms being a rifled musket and my Winchester 40-82 rifle, as I felt too tired watching the Indians pole and paddle all day to attempt it myself.

Nothing was seen of them for half an hour, when a shot was heard, followed almost instantly by another.

The mother fell at once, and so steep was the mountain side that her death struggles carried her 400 to 500 feet "head over heels" downward to a crag where the body lodged. The kids scampered off like rabbits, followed by a few shots. Their meat was probably worth eating, but that of their dam was stronger than a badger. The hunters made their way to the goat, gave it a fling, and followed this up until it arrived by installments.

It had one horn gone, and I do not think there was an unbroken bone in its body. This, they said, was the orthodox way of bringing such a carcass into camp, and they thought it made the meat tenderer.

If this goat was any tougher when it started than when it arrived, then I am willing to believe the stories of their jumping hundreds of feet, lighting on their heads, etc., that I formerly doubted. I never saw men on a trip care so little for fresh meat.

That day but six miles was made and the next day only seven. We now appreciated how much we had lost in our fine up-stream wind.

Lunch Camp on the Tako.

At our third camp fresh bear tracks were in abundance, but it was the only part of the animal we saw. One of the surprising things to me was the kittenish playfulness of the Indians after camping and after a very hard day's work.

Many of them wrestled and played "tag" violently, while one amused himself cutting down a large poplar tree, just to see some of his fellows scampering to get out of the way. I have found this merry-making universal among the Tlinkits. The 29th the breeze came up about 10, and we needed every puff of it, for the river was now very swift. On some of the shallow places we could hear the rolling pebbles beat against the canoe bottom almost like hail on a tin roof.

In some places it was seemingly a fight for life to avoid being swept down some side channel, swift, shallow, and bristling with drift timber. Once we were caught directly against a huge drift log in midstream, over which the swift water fairly boiled. Why we were not swept under it or broken in two even the Indians could not explain. We could not budge an inch, but were finally liberated in a way the very least expected; the log itself broke, and this, too, where it was a foot or two in diameter. It is not often that a rotten log averts a disaster; it is more likely to determine one. There was not enough room along the sides for all to pole effectively, as the doctor's time was drawn to his topographic work considerably, while if I stood up I threw the hydrostatic equilibrium of the whole expedition into an epileptic fit. We too, were excused, but Russell, an excellent river man, held his own fully with the others. In the use of the paddle, however, we came to the front and broke our share.

Later in the afternoon we came to our first canyon. Here the whole river passes through a rocky gorge with not very high banks, and some 125 yards in width. As the current did not increase greatly, if at all, I inferred it was of unusual depth. Anyway, poling was out of the question, and it required strategic tracking to get the great canoe through. A few hundred yards beyond the river forks into its two main branches, the more important being the south fork. It was up the north fork, however, we turned about a mile, and, as usual, camped on a gravel bar after eight miles of travel that in labor represented nearer 80. At the confluence of the two main forks was a deserted Indian house surrounded by a picturesque grouping of graves, themselves diminutive houses. The whole river, however, bristled with picturesque graveyards and deserted or half destroyed buildings, until one is forced to acknowledge that it is a solemn and melancholy stream.

Considerable attention has been given in recent years to the methods of carrying on communication between points in time of seigh. In a recent issue of La Nature a French investigator strongly recommends the use of carrier pigeons for transmitting messages, and gives a map of Europe with the projected stations for pigeon service marked. During the siege of Paris this method of communication was carried on, and a distinct pigeon post was organized, the letters at a cost of ten cents a word, being sent into the city with a great degree of rapidity. The letters, which were limited to twenty words, were set in type, and aftera reduced photograph was made, the film was removed from the glass and inclosed in small quills, which were then attached to one of the tail feathers of the bird. So complete was the organization that many thousand letters were sent in this way. There is no special skill required for this work, and any amateur photographer conversant with the wet collodion process could, with an ordinary camera and lens, reduce a whole page of a newspaper to such dimensions as would enable it to be dispatched in the manner described.

Faded, jaded, tired, overworked women — weak, nervous, delicate and suffering ones. These are the women who are helped to health and strength by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a legitimate medicine, that corrects and cures; a tonic that invigorates and builds up; a nervine that soothes and strengthens. And if it doesn't do what its makers claim for it, they don't want your money.

For all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses that afflict womankind, the "Prescription" is a safe and certain remedy—a guaranteed one. In "female complaints" of every nature, periodical pains, internal inflammation and ulceration, leucorrhea, and all kindred ailments—if it fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

No other medicine for women is sold on such trying terms. If any could be, you may be sure that it would be. Is something else which pays the dealer better, likely to be "just as good?"

ANOTHER CRANK IN CHURCH

He Was Bent on Killing a Priest.

Great Excitement in St. Xavier Church During Mass—A Mad Man at the Altar.

New York, March 22.—The worshipers at the 5 o'clock mass in St. Francis Xavier's Roman Catholic church in West Sixteenth street were annoyed from the beginning of the services yesterday by the actions of a stout, elderly man, who moved about from seat to seat and kept up a continued muttering.

He went up and knelt at the altar rails with the first group of men and women who wanted communion and continued his restless actions there.

The officiating priest say that something was wrong and passed the man without giving him the sacrament, whereupon the muttering became so loud as to be heard all over the church.

Just as the priest turned his back to return to the altar the man jumped up and yelled: "Let me get at Father Daly! I want to kill him!"

The women near the altar all ran back to their seats screaming, and the half dozen men among the 200 worshippers started up to secure him.

"Not one of you dare touch me," he yelled. "I am going to kill either Father Daly or Father Glynn, and as for that Father Delaney, of St. Bernard's, I'll strip the jacket off him."

Both the officiating priest and his assistant kept right on with the mass despite the torrent of invective and threats the man kept up, and it was not until he made a motion to get over the altar rail that the priest beckoned to the men who were eagerly waiting in the aisles.

The man showed fight as they ran up to him, and as he was of powerful build he kept them away from him until he tripped and fell. He was arrested.

Several Bond Issues Disposed of Last Night

At a Good Round Figure, Which Will Be Very Gratifying to All Connected With the City Government.

Several lots of improvement bonds were sold by the ways and means committee in the city auditor's office last evening. There was good evidence that the bond market was picking up as there were a large number of representatives of banking houses present to bid for the bonds, and all that were offered were sold at a very satisfactory premium.

For the $93,000 worth of general street improvement bonds some good bids were presented. The bid of Farron, Leech & Co., offered over $6,000 premium on the bonds, but it was not accompanied by the usual check, and while the committee was discussing the bid the representative of that firm stated that he had made a mistake in his bid and he withdrew it. The bonds were then awarded to Spitzer & Co., the next highest bidders, for par, accrued interest and a premium of $4,575.60.

The other bonds offered consisting of $2,500 for Wayne street, $15,000 for Bridge street, $14,389.40 for Oliver street, $13,774.68 for Stickney avenue, $6,262.73 for Islington street, $2,900 for sewer 372 and $3,400 for sewer 373, were sold to the Union Savings bank for par and a premium of $30.

HIS NIBS THE BARON

Opens the Week at the People's.

Other Attractions Coming—A Week With the Wilbur's—Tangled Up Friday Evening.

His Nibs the Baron commenced a week's engagement at the People's last evening to a crowded house. While the piece has no very great plot, the numerous specialties sprinkled throughout the performance were most of them very clever and were sufficient to keep the audience in good humor. The play deals with the difficulties arising from the masquerading of a maid and a valet, who, in the absence of their employers, an opera singer and a baron, pass themselves off as the heads of their respective houses, with the idea of making a rich marriage before the master and mistress return. Some of the situations are very good, and with a little smoothing here and a little filling in there, the piece could be much improved. The best thing of the evening was the mirror dance by the Laziola sisters, two very bright young ladies. One dances in front of a gauze frame, made to represent a mirror, while the other goes through the motions of the reflection behind the gauze. The illusion is perfect, and is one of the best things ever put on the People's stage.

Lottie Winnett was very good as the maid Susie. Her dancing was a feature of the performance. James Quinn did some very clever work as the Irish girl. He has played the same part as Geo. Monroe of Aunt Bridget fame, and introduces the character in this piece. The other specialties were all good, especially the harmonica playing by Prof. Burke. The piece will doubtless draw well all week.

The Ann Arbor Boys.

This evening the Ann Arbor Glee and Banjo clubs will appear at Wheeler's in a characteristic program. College songs and music are always rollicking and inspiring, and when given by those who have their whole hearts in the work, they cannot help but prove most enjoyable. This evening's concert will be one of the events of the season both socially and musically.

An Excellent Attraction Coming.

One of the best attractions of the season is promised at the Wheeler opera house Friday evening in the appearance of DeLange-Rising company in the laughable comedy, Tangled Up. Will S. Rising, who, with Louis De Lange, is starring in the comedy, has many personal friends in Toledo, besides the wide circle of well wishers who have seen his work in Starlight, The Little Tycoon, Said Pasha, and Lotta's company. Rising is something of a linguist, and a good deal of an athlete, as well as a good singer and a capable actor. A French farce which he saw in Paris is the basis of the lively piece, which he has constructed and named Tangled Up. With Rising is associated Louis DeLange, who was for several seasons a popular comedian in Aronson's Casino company. Another member of the company is Lottie Mortimer, a delightful soubrette and dancer, who is making a hit with the new "serpentine dance." In this Miss Mortimer wears a dress which is made of the fleeciest of China crepe silk, and is twirled by the dancer in all sorts of circles, spirals and graceful figures. There are other entertaining people in the cast, and the play is said to be full of irresistibly funny situations.

A Week of Opera.

When the Wilburs were here recently at the People's, many were turned away every night. Thus encouraged, the company has decided to play a return date, this time at Wheeler's, where opera will hold forth all next week. There will be a matinee every day but Monday. The following operas will be given:

Monday night—Dorothy.
Tuesday matinee and night—Fanchette.
Wednesday matinee and night—Falka.
Thursday matinee and night—Black Hussar.
Friday matinee and night—Beggar Student.
Saturday matinee—Dorothy.
Saturday night—Grand Duchess.

At the People's Next Week.

Dan McCarthy will appear at the People's next week in Cruiskeen Lawn, an Irish piece that has made a great hit in the east. The piece will be put on with elaborate scenic effects and a big cast.

It is at this time of year that the rural members of Congress are overwhelmed with requests from their constituents for seeds and the choice agricultural reading matter that emanates from Secretary Rusk's bureau. Each Representative is allowed 8,800 packages of seeds and 800 Agricultural Reports for distribution, and most of the country members have already exhausted their stock. Mr. Meredith, of Virginia, has been receiving for several weeks past an average of fifty requests a day for seeds, and Mr. Holman long ago sent out the last of his allotted 8,800 packages. Some of the Congressmen set great store on this way of winning the hearts of their constituents, and in Indiana, indeed, packages of seeds are said to do more good than $10 bills.

Why Ladies Flock to Court.

A Clear Definition of the Causes Which Make Women So Susceptible to Emotion.

The New York Sun has an able editorial in which it seeks to show why some women love to attend sensational or murder trials. It says: "Women are not stirred at all by many of the occurrences which agitate men, but when a case involving life and death comes up, a tragic cause, and more especially when it has about it a mystery in which a woman is concerned, and a woman of more refined society, they follow its course with an intensity of interest greater than men feel. It is akin to the fascination which a fictitious tragedy on the stage has for women, and for women more than men. It is a luxury for many good women to have their tenderest feelings of sympathy aroused. They enjoy going to funerals and wiping away tears shed in unison with those of sorrowing relatives. The plays that wring the heart are more attractive for them than the comedies which provoke merriment. They delight in having their feelings roused to the highest pitch."

This is all undoubtedly true, but there is a cause far back of all this. It is a cause which has its origin in the life and condition of the women themselves. Most women are weak and not in good health. When a woman is sickly, her feelings are quickly aroused and she suffers keenly. Thus is the real actual cause of it all. Women should not suffer. They are designed by nature for happiness, not misery. And yet, too often, it is continual suffering, when there is a certain relief. Read the experience of a New York lady:

Mrs. J. F. Beale, residing at 363 Lexington avenue, says: "About six years ago I suffered from a severe attack of peritonitis and general kidney troubles. Despite the attendance of skilled physicians my ailments increased. I finally decided to try Warner's Safe Cure and purchased a bottle. This step was taken on the advice of several friends who had been benefited by its use. At this time the physicians stated that another attack of my malady would most assuredly prove fatal. I took four bottles of the Safe Cure, which entirely cured me. Whenever I feel as though any of the symptoms were returning I take a dose and immediately feel better. I now feel as well as in my girlhood—and it is entirely due to this remedy."

Is this an isolated experience? By no means. It is precisely what hundreds of other ladies have found true in their experience. It shows that if women continue to suffer, if the trials of life weigh them down when they should be joyful, they have themselves only to blame. There is a means of relief, of restoration. It is pure, it is safe, it is a woman's best friend. By its use she can be enabled to withstand the ills of life and secure both health and happiness.

That the Best . . . . . Is the Cheapest

Applies to everything, but is especially true of China. It's in the goods. The price we ask for them. The value is there. And when we occasionally hear some of our friends say that the set they bought of us ten or fifteen years ago is still as good as new, it proves to us the soundness of the policy to carry the best. Poor China gets worse, good China is always good.

HE WAS A PIONEER.

Thomas Grady, Who Was Laid to Rest To-Day.

Mr. Thomas Grady, of whose death mention was made in the Bee a few days since, and whose funeral occurred yesterday, was an old resident of Toledo. He was 67 years old, having been born in Waterford county, Ireland. He came to Toledo in 1842, and has lived an exemplary life. For the past 35 years Mr. Grady was connected in various capacities with the elevators of the city, and in respect to the deceased work was suspended half a day yesterday to allow employes to attend the funeral. Mr Grady was much respected, and his death will be mourned by a large circle of relatives and friends.

RIP VAN WINKLE SNOOZE

Indulged In by a Juror, and the Court Awakened Him.

Judge Pugsley is inclined to keep his juries in line, and talks with the bark off when needs be.

Following the few sound facts which he administered to a jury Saturday, comes another well-placed rebuke to a member of a jury impanelled yesterday.

The case on hearing was a dry civil action and devoid of any interesting features whatever.

After listening for an hour or two to the testimony, the proceedings became monotonous and the juror in question dozed off into a sleep, and was soon snoring away four rows at a time.

"Wake up that juror," ordered the court.

The man sitting next gave the sleeper a nudge, and he came back to earth rubbing his eyes and yawning as though he had been asleep for 20 years.

The court after sizing the man up, said: "If you don't do any good, keep awake for appearance sake."

NOTHING FROM POPE.

General Belief that He Has Gone West and Is At Work.

Nothing has been heard as to the whereabouts of E. A. Pope, either by his family or business acquaintances.

Before leaving he drew out what money was on deposit to his credit at the bank, amounting to about $200. On Sunday afternoon he went to his office and took what change there was in the cash drawer, not over $3 in all. It is judged by this that the $200 included the extent of his cash on hand. This will not keep him going in idleness a great while. The popular theory is that the missing man is at work in some western town.

A leading insurance man informed a Bee this morning that good insurance adjusters were in constant demand in the west, and when a good man at the business happened along he was employed and no questions asked. It is then very probable that Mr. Pope has found employment of this nature, and by strict attention to business may mend, brace up, square accounts and redeem his former good name and standing among Toledo people. It is hoped so, at least.

THE TOLEDO ASYLUM

As Mentioned in the Report of the State Board of Charities.

The seventh annual report of the state board of charities has been received. In it the following reference is made to the Toledo asylum for insane:

Dr. C. E. Tupper, an experienced practitioner of Ottawa, Putnam county, took charge of this institution in May last, on the resignation of Dr. H. A. Tobey. The records of the institution for the year show a greater percentage of recoveries and a smaller one of deaths upon admissions than any previous year. There has also been a reduction in per capita cost, including officers' salaries and of current expenses, notwithstanding the advanced prices paid for the staples of life—meat, flour and potatoes—as compared with last year.

At the beginning of cold weather thermometers were placed in all the wards. The effect of the high grade of temperature constantly demanded by the foolish minds of the insane, undoubtedly tends to enervation, and is a prime factor in weakening the muscles and causing the sickly appearance of asylum-housed inmates. The great care observed here on this point cannot fail to be beneficial.

Both at Our Home and Abroad.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Current for Produce and Other Articles.

The Markets.

London wheat and corn markets open very slow and neglected. Liverpool wheat dull; corn good demand and dearer.

The receipts of wheat at seven principal western points to-day are 665,681 bu, compared with 298,019 bu on the same day last year.

The imports into the United Kingdom for the week were 1,736,000 bu of wheat and 368,000 bbls of flour, equal to 3,895,000 bu of wheat, and 1,600,000 bu of corn.

The quantity of flour and wheat on ocean passage decreased last week 784,000 bu, being a decrease to the United Kingdom of 1,820,000 bu, and an increase to the continent of 536,000 bu. Corn increased 360,000 bu.

Our table herein of available wheat and corn shows a decrease of 459,000 bu wheat, and an increase of 328,000 bu corn.

The receipts of wheat are large. Minneapolis and Duluth have 471,235 bu and the other five points 192,446 bu.

The export clearances yesterday were very light in wheat, 59,202 bu and flour to an aggregate of 310,000 bu. Export of corn 393,756, and of oats 25,693 bu.

English markets as reported herein open dull and slow at about previous prices.

A letter from Bluffton, Ind., says the freezing and thawing has brought the roots of the wheat to the surface and the cold dry winds are destroying them. Many fields will be plowed up.

Comment—We say to our correspondent what we have before said, that No. 2 hard spring wheat can be obtained at Chicago, and it will do well for one or two crops, and is more profitable to resow than flax. It has produced 35 bu to the acre in this vicinity.

The change in the weather to rain is beneficial to wheat. We hope it extends all over the winter wheat field. If the soft and wet weather continues we shall soon know the extent of the loss to the crop.

The Markets To-Day.

The only feature of the market to-day is who is buying and who is selling on the great exchanges. The markets abroad furnish no strong influences in either direction. At home, as we said, it is simply selling to-day what was bought yesterday or vice versa. It is simply a room trading deal.

Prices have ruled easier, and the friends of wheat are looking on and feeling for the bottom, which just now looks like 80c for Chicago May wheat and 88c here. And so we go. A great deal of money has been lost on the buying side. The blind lead the blind, but just now the bears are not in danger of falling into the ditch.

The unexpected happens in grain business. In the quarter of an hour before close of 'change a cable announced a war cloud from Russia, with armies mobilized and marching on the Prussian frontier. War should be the last, as it is the worst arbiter, but with a half mad German and a half distracted Russian emperor, there is no telling what may occur.

At Chicago May wheat declined 1 1-8c and recovered 7-8c of it. The unsteadiness in New York was less.

Corn has been stronger under the soft, wet weather, and closes 1-4c to 1-2c up.

English and French markets were reported closing lower.

In New York March and May wheat closed 3-8c lower. March corn 1-2c and May 1-4c higher. May oats 1-4c lower.

In Chicago May wheat closed 1-4c lower. May corn 1-2c up, and May oats 1-8c up.

In Toledo the market for wheat has been more active and there was a large increase in the trading for May and July. The fluctuations have been frequent but not very wide and the market closes firm. On the call July wheat sold at 87 3-8c.

After the call May sold at 90 1-8, declined at 89 3-4c, and closed at 90 3-4c, a loss of 1-8. July sold at 87 1-4 to 86 7-8, and closed at 87 3-4, a loss of 1-4. August sold at 85 to 85 1-8. Cash wheat was in much greater request, with sale of a cargo of No. 2 soft, at 90c to 89 7-8c, closing at 90 3-4c, a loss of 1-4c. No. 3 soft at 88 1-2c. Rejected No. 1 at 84c. No. 1 white at 88c. No. 2 white at 88c.

Corn—Held higher, very little done. No. 2 about 40c. No. 3 at 39c. No. 2 white at 42c. Nothing in oats and rye.

Clover seed—Dull, very little inquiry or business. Prime for cash at $7 35. No. 2 at $7 10 to $7 15.

IT LOOKS LIKE WAR.

The Pennsylvania Will Cut on Coal to Toledo

And a General Demoralization o Coal Rates Will Surely Follow—The Probable Outcome of the Pittsburg Meeting.

The officials of Toledo coal carrying railroads are at Pittsburg attending the meeting of producers and carriers to fix coal rates for the coming season. A meeting was held yesterday and another one to-day. From the way matters are going it looks as if this afternoon the Pennsylvania company will announce a reduction of about 40 per cent. in rates on coal between Pittsburg and Toledo this year. This move is caused by the breaking of an agreement on the part of Ohio coal operators. Their violations froze the Pittsburg men, so they say, out of the market, and the railroad company will now come to the aid of Pittsburg operators, and by a sweeping cut in rates give them the entire market. This looks bad for Ohio coal. The Ohio men have said, however, that if the Pennsylvania made a cut they would go under it and a lively war would follow that would be disastrous to all concerned.

BIG SALE OF STOCK.

Northern National Shows a Healthy Increase.

Highest Price Yet Reached for Stock in this Leading Banking Institution.

Conservative and strong, the Northern National bank of Toledo shows its solidity and popularity by an occasional transfer of stock at a large premium.

Yesterday Mr. A. M. Woolson, for himself and friends, purchased 292 shares of the stock of this bank held by Mr. Wm. Cummings, formerly president of the Northern National. The price paid was $157 a share, being the highest price at which stock in this bank ever sold. The last sale previous to this transaction was in December last at $150.

It is a semi-secret, public now, that after supplying himself with all the stock he wanted, Mr. Woolson turned the balance of the Cummings block over to the directors of the bank, who will place it where it will benefit the business of the bank.

The Northern National has made considerable improvement since January, and the large price just paid, coming from men on the inside, shows their estimate of the value of the stock. Banks are the barometer of trade, and strong banking institutions signify healthy business. Toledo's banks are strong, with a decided upward tendency, and among the best is the Northern National.

This will be a good spring for Old Scratch to get in his work at the election. Scratch the republican ticket. It is bad. Could hardly be worse. It was made by a ring for ring purposes.

The wretched condition of the streets of Toledo calls loudly for a change of street commissioners. Bower, the present incumbent, has made a bad mess of it, and there is every reason why he should not be re-elected this spring. Vote for Louis Steuer, and very likely there will be a wonderful improvement.

In the report of the rivers and harbors committee in congress the Maumee straight channel is given $200,000. Under the circumstances this is liberal, and much good work will be done in completing the channel already well begun. Toledo will eventually have the best harbor on the lakes.

There is cause for congratulation that the deep channel project is favorably reported by the rivers and harbors committee. Once the good work is begun it will continue until the largest vessels can navigate all the rivers connecting the great lakes. Then lake marine will double in importance and general prosperity of all lake interests will follow.

The price of middling cotton last week in New Orleans was 6 3-8 cents a pound, the lowest price touched since 1849, says the New Orleans Picayune. The average loss to cotton planters this year is $10 per bale, which will aggregate $90,000,000 should the crop reach 9,000,000,000 bales, as expected. Let us hurrah some more for the "home market."

Congressman Walker is quoted as saying: "Belonging to the democratic party is the fad with Boston nice young men, not for principle." The fad that gives the party that nice young man Governor Russell is not unwelcome. It is for him, and the other nice young men who are with him, to resent their fellow statesman's imputation that they lack both brains and principle.

The high taxers claim that wages are higher on this side of the Canadian border. Why, then, has it been found necessary to introduce in the Canadian legislature a bill to prohibit the importation of contract labor from the United States? Has the supply of cheap Kanuck laborers run out, or has all that class of laborers been brought this side the border, in defiance of our own contract labor law?

There have as yet been no indications that this government intends to comply with the demands of Italy for reparation for the New Orleans incident. No recommendation to that effect has been made by the administration to congress, and it is not believed that any is in contemplation.—Dispatch.

Unfortunately for the dignity of this country the Italian and the Chilean episodes will go into history together. It is not a noble showing for the great American republic in its dealings with smaller powers.

It is reported that Daniel T. Gardner, a Virginian by birth, long a resident of New York, and later a successful business man of Russia, has mysteriously disappeared under circumstances that indicate he has been sent to Siberia. As Daniel married a Russian princess, back in 1873, and later surrendered his American citizenship and became a subject of the czar, there is nothing to be done for his relief even by this jingo administration. Any man whose privilege it had been to be born in America and who would elect to call the Russian despot his father deserves exile or worse.

A bill presented to this congress and referred to the committee on commerce provides for uniform safety car couplers on all our railroads. By its provisions the railroad companies have until next December to select such a coupler. If it has not at that time been done, then the Interstate Commerce Commission will select it, and force its use upon the companies. For years trainmen have entreated and demanded that this provision for protection to their lives and limbs should be made by their employers, and every year thousands of precious lives are sacrificed because the demand is not complied with. Surely the mechanical genius of this age of invention is capable of meeting this need. If governmental interference in the business of individuals and corporations is ever justified it is when the lives of human beings are preserved thereby. The bill should not be lost sight of.

The result of the senate committee's official tariff investigation will soon be made public. The inquiry has been into the effects of tariffs, past and present, upon wages and cost of living, and agents of the bureau of labor have secured nearly 5,000,000 answers to questions covering this ground, in seventy cities in different parts of the country. The figures are to be tabulated before the report of the committee is made public. The report will be awaited with interest. If the investigation has been searching and unpartisan the principles of the democracy on this paramount issue will be endorsed in the facts and figures presented.

Yesterday's advices from Germany show Chancellor von Caprivi in the amiable role of peacemaker. By retaining his cabinet position and resigning as premier of Prussia, the chancellor may with propriety cease his advocacy of the Primary Educational measure. At least that measure is no longer one upon the success of which is contingent his remaining in the cabinet. As Prussian premier he must have advocated it; as chancellor he may remain neutral. He may now, as no other can it seems, advise the headstrong and irritable young emperor for his good. In adopting this course he makes it evident such is his wish and intention. Emperor Wilhelm on his part makes such excuses as are a virtual backdown from the high and mighty but impracticable course he sought to follow. A few days ago it was confidently asserted that the emperor would not surrender a single feature of the ridiculous bill, and that, should its passage through the landtag be impossible, he would, imitating Charles I. of England, dissolve his refractory parliament. It may be the Hohenzollern has read further into the history of the Stuarts and therefore has come to a wiser conclusion.

THE CITY CAMPAIGN.

The two political parties of Toledo have made their nominations and citizens have nearly two weeks to study the situation and determine which candidates will best serve the city. Lines of politics are never drawn taut at spring elections and the independent voter usually scratches like sixty. He will find good candidates for his suffrage on the democratic ticket this year. A better ticket was never presented to the voters of Toledo. From top to bottom men of character and ability were selected by the convention, which in itself was a model political gathering.

There is a strong feeling in Toledo in favor of reforming our municipal government, which is wretchedly bad and which sadly needs immediate reformation. Better government can not be expected at the present time from the republican office holders, or from republicans who are candidates this spring. The whole machinery of republican politics is in a reckless condition and profligacy and extravagance follows every act of the republican council. There is no hope of betterment at this time through republican agency.

The time is at hand for democratic administration of municipal affairs. The situation demands a change and the taxpayers ought to meet the question with heroic determination to bring about a radical improvement. No improvement need be expected from the republican candidates. They are bound, hoof and hide, to the ring and couldn't emancipate themselves if they wanted to, and it is certain they do not want to. The democratic ticket suggests the salvation of the city government. Elect it and Toledo will be in much better condition a year hence.

THE RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.

The approaching state election in Rhode Island is not only for governor and other state officers, but also for members of the legislature which will choose the successor to United States Senator Aldrich, republican. Last year the democratic nominee for governor received a plurality of the popular vote, but not a majority over all candidates, there being four tickets in the field. Under the state constitution the election went to the republican legislature, and the republican candidate was chosen by that body. There followed the dissatisfaction over this conclusion that always follows the upsetting of a popular vote. This dissatisfaction, combined with disappointment in the practical working of the tariff, and local causes, encourages the democrats of the state to believe they have a fighting chance this year, and may elect not only a governor but also a majority of the legislature. It will not do to take too much stock in this very natural hopefulness of the Rhode Island democrats. The causes which necessitate their defeat are those which made it imperative that all the resources of the administration and of the national republican party should be thrown into the Ohio campaign last fall, and which carried the state for McKinley. Rhode Island with its five counties, and 345,500 population, is a little state, but in its manufactures it is one of the leading states of the Union. At all hazard the "beneficence of the tariff" must be demonstrated in that state by the continuance in power of the high tariff party.

THE STEEL TRUST.

The New York Commercial-Bulletin says: "If there is a single trust or combination in the United States which carries on its operations in direct violation of the federal anti-trust law, it is the present steel rail combine." The consolidation of interests in this combine was begun in 1886 and completed in January, 1891. Output from all works in the combine and prices are regulated by a cast-iron agreement, and purchasers are absolutely at its mercy. The price of rails has been fixed far above the cost of production and of prices of other steel and iron products. In self-defense railroad corporations have for months restricted their purchase of rails and railway construction has languished. In all directions that business activity which is so beneficial to all has been blocked by this combine. The Commercial-Bulletin expresses surprise that the Attorney-General of the United States does not bring suit against the combine for violation of the anti-trust law, and says:

"It has been asserted that the close personal and political relations existing between the leading members of the combine and the high officials in the present administration have prevented any action from being taken."

The situation justifies the severity of this language, but there is another moral not less obvious, which should not be overlooked. Only under the provisions of the McKinley tariff act would the steel rail combine have been able to carry out its equity-defying program. The tariff on importation of steel rails is virtually prohibitive. This has made the trust and its prices possible. This has thrown workmen out of work in steel rail manufacturing by making it profitable to limit the manufacture. This has thrown workmen out of work in railway construction, by making it unprofitable to buy the rails necessary for construction or extension of roads. Verily, "protection does protect"—the trusts.

REGISTRATION DAYS.

Friday and Saturday of this week are the registration days for the spring election. All persons who did not register last fall, all new residents and all who have changed their residence since last fall must register. The Bee urges democrats to give this matter close attention. Do not jeopardize the good prospect of success by neglecting the registry requirement.

THE CITY TICKET.

The work of the delegates at the democratic city convention Monday meets with the cordial approbation of the party, and well it may. A better ticket could scarcely be nominated. The nominees are all peculiarly fitted for the places for which they have been named.

Toledo is suffering to-day from mismanagement in its civic affairs, and the feeling of the people is seriously misjudged if a change is not made in several of the departments at the coming election. In no place can reform begin more profitably than in the street commissioner's office. For two years there has been practically no attention paid to the streets. They have been allowed to remain in a most wretched condition. Mud has abounded everywhere, and, while other commissioners no doubt merited criticism, Mr. Bower has eclipsed all his predecessors in the shiftless manner in which he has administered his duties. An opportunity is now given to make a change for the better. Mr. Louis Steuer, the democratic nominee, is a practical man, and having no axes to grind for favorites, would make a model official. He was born and raised in Toledo, and for 13 years has occupied a responsible position with Berdan & Co., the wholesale grocers. Attentive to his business, he has gained in favor with his employers and with those who have had any relations with him, and it is scarcely possible to make a mistake in giving him the fullest support for street commissioner.

Mr. John H. Puck, the nominee for police commissioner, is not unknown to Toledoans. As a member of the school board and of the Ohio legislature he always performed his work with satisfaction to his constituents. Mr. Puck is at the head of the Western Manufacturing company, and is a thorough-going business man. He served with credit in the union army, is a disciplinarian, and a wiser choice could not be made for police commissioner. The gentleman is president of the First Ward Democratic club, and to him much of the credit is due for the building which has been procured for its use. He did not seek the office for which he was nominated, but answers his party's call, as all good democrats should do.

Clarence E. Armstrong is the candidate for water works trustee, and it is no disparagement to other democrats to say that no more popular member of the party resides in the city. Himself a successful business man, he would bring to the position elements which are positively necessary. That he will receive the full vote of the democracy and of several thousand republicans goes without saying. Mr. Armstrong has never been a candidate for office, and now that he has accepted the nomination his majority should be so large as to induce others such as he to take an interest in the affairs incident to the running of the city government.

For gas trustees Mr. Lauer and Mr. O. A. Browning were named. The former gentleman is foreman in the Wabash shops, a workingman who toils daily, while the latter is well known in business circles. Both of these gentlemen's services are needed to aid in the success of the city plant, and as they have been faithful in their own undertakings it is not unreasonable to suppose that they would bring the same qualifications to the office of gas trustee.

The nominee for police clerk, George W. Leibius, is a bright young man, who is fully qualified to make an excellent officer. That he is popular is shown by the fact that he was nominated by acclamation, all other candidates having withdrawn after it was made apparent that Mr. Leibius was regarded as the best selection. He will command the support of the young voters, and he cannot fail to be a winner.

For justice of the peace Thomas E. Rooney, James H. Spain, and Charles I. Scott are the nominees. Mr. Rooney is a printer, and workingmen can show their appreciation of his efforts in their behalf by giving him a solid vote. Mr. Spain is a soldier, and has always done his share in assisting to elect others to position. He can confidently invite the support of the veterans. Mr. Scott has already filled the office of justice, and gave satisfaction. The three nominees will compare favorably with their opponents for ability.

The Polish voters were honored in the selection of one of their number, Mr. John Kani, for constable. He is popular and worthy.

On the whole, the ticket is one against which nothing can be said, and with the unity and harmony which prevails in the party, Toledo democracy can safely anticipate a sweeping victory on April 4. Vote the straight ticket, and this is assured.

THE WARD TICKETS.

Nominations for ward officers by the democrats have never been excelled. There is no good reason to withhold support from any of them. The coming council will have much to do with determining whether advancement shall be made in the city's prosperity. Many of the past councils have simply enacted all legislation presented, and the result is that breakers are ahead in the near future.

For aldermen the nominees are Fred Schulty in the First, Ashton Coldham in the Third, M. Graham in the Fifth, W. R. Hodge in the Seventh, and F. H. Wolfman in the Ninth, and all are worthy and capable.

For councilmen these gentlemen are in the race, and most of them will be elected: Rudolph P. Mathias, Theodore Schmitt, Sylvester Lamb, John Daily, Frank Coleman, Sanford W. Cook, J. A. Felker, L. W. Walker and A. C. Bay. They are much superior in every respect to their opponents.

The school board was not neglected. Sam Kohn, nominated in the Second, is a graduate of the Toledo schools; Mr. Zirwas has been a useful member of the board for years; Dr. Hathaway is a well known resident of the Sixth ward, while A. E. Wilson could not be improved upon in the Eighth.

Excellent selections were made for assessors, a very important office. The splendid character and acknowledged popularity of the ward nominees will add materially to the excellent work of the city convention. Get out the vote and all will be well.

RHEUMATISM and NEURALGIA CURED.

If suffering, send this slip from the Bee, with a 2-cent stamp, to W. H. Hill & Co., Detroit, Mich. We will send a bottle of medicine free.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That the redistricting bill will be a law before the close of the week.

That the Ann Arbor Glee club holds forth to-night at Wheeler's.

That the democratic hosts are united in support of the whole ticket.

That a Pythian Journal is to be re-established at Toledo by Col. S. A. Court.

That the Fourth ward will give Louis Steuer at least 400 majority for street commissioner.

That while other candidates were asleep, W. H. Coalwell was getting pledges from delegates to be.

That the democrats of Toledo never had a better cause for feeling that they will win a victory this spring.

That city and county officials are flitting about in a lively manner getting the boys into line for the doomed ticket.

That as a result of Postmaster Brown's visit to Washington, some much-needed help will be secured for the Toledo office.

That the 20th of March has come and gone, and yet the railroad commissionership's appointment has not been received in Toledo.

That Charley Pratt and the other truly good republicans in the second ward are not jubilant over their nomination for councilman.

That Bower cannot fail to be defeated by Louis Steuer, since he has been practically of no use in any particular during the past two years.

That the postoffice will look scrumptious when the electric lights are touched off, and the boys get to using the electrical stamping machines.

That the re-election of Mr. M. C. Sullivan as chairman of the democratic city central committee was a deserved compliment to a faithful party worker.

That Jake Weier Fogarty, Tanner and the rest of the fellows who were running for police clerk in the republican convention are the sorest mortals to be found in seven states.

That the mention of Grover Cleveland's name by Byron Ritchie at the city convention yesterday brought down the house. The ex-president is evidently still popular in the hearts of Toledo democrats.

That Frank Hake, republican nominee for councilman in the Sixth ward, is a city contractor for the sinking of artesian wells, and surely he ought not to be allowed an opportunity to pass on his own bids and bills.

That the use of the Baber law to elect delegates to the county convention which is to choose the men who will name representatives for the district at the Chicago national convention would prove eminently satisfactory.

That there is some talk of getting Sprague to withdraw from the Second ward ticket to allow the republicans to nominate Moxie for the school board, to save trouble on account of the choice of Schaefer, his competitor, for the council.

TIFFIN NEWS.

A Boy's Ignorance Gets Him Into the Penitentiary.

Tiffin, O., March 22.—(Special)—Samuel Miller, an ignorant country boy of 17 years, pleaded guilty to forgery and was given one year in the penitentiary. Miller was engaged in working for a farmer, and when he needed some money he drew up a check in a bungling manner and signed it with the name of his employer. He was arrested, and had no idea at the time that he had violated any law by signing his employer's name.

Library Association.

The Seneca county Law Library association is being organized under the statutes of Ohio by the attorneys of this city and county. The law provides for such associations, and all the fines imposed under the statutes, not in excess of $500, are reserved for the purchase of books and others expenses of these associations. Articles of incorporation have been secured by a number of leading attorneys, and nearly all the members of the bar in the county have signified their willingness to unite with the association. The library will be located in a commodious room in the new court house, reserved for the purpose, and will be in charge of a court bailiff. Free access to the library is guaranteed to all county officials, justices of the peace and other magistrates, as well as members of the association. A meeting for permanent organization will be held during the present week.

Honorita, wife of James Patton, a prominent Eden township farmer, died last Saturday night of pneumonia, aged 47 years, and was buried from St. Mary's Catholic church in this city to-day.

ST. MARYS ITEMS.

Result of the Primaries—Funeral of Henry Hartwig.

St. Marys, O., March 22.—(Special)—Following is the result of the democratic township primary: Trustee, John Tangeman; clerk, J. L. Smith; assessor, Franz Orphal; justices of the peace, J. A. Hay and W. L. Smith, committeemen, J. P. Longsworth, Thos. Barrington, jr., and John Orphal. The corporation primary resulted as follows: Mayor, D. A. Clark; clerk, J. A. Hay; treasurer, Wm. Shields; marshal, Tom Culliton; councilmen, Lewis Weadock, H. W. Pliss and Mike Klink; gas trustee, D. Armstrong.

The funeral of Henry Hartwig, the fireman who was killed in the powder explosion at the Lock Two fire last week, occurred at his home in New Bremen to-day, and was the largest and most impressive ever witnessed in this section.

Fire departments were present from this city, Wapakoneta, Botkins and Anna, and over five hundred firemen were in line. Almost every business house in the town was draped in mourning.

THE DEAL COMPLETED.

New York, March 22.—A Philadelphia dispatch to the Herald says that Treasurer Searles, of the American Refiners' company (the sugar trust), was in the city yesterday for the purpose of completing the deal by which the Spreckels and Franklin refineries were to be taken into the combination.

The tariff fight in the house is rapidly getting as democratic as any democrat could wish it to be. And a democratic fight now means democratic success in November.—St. Louis Republic.

It is gratifying to learn that there is an excellent prospect of Mr. Roger Q. Mills being chosen United States senator from Texas. This will transfer two tariff leaders from the house to the senate. One of them had been speaker of the house and the other ought to have been.—Boston Herald.

It does seem a little odd that European nations should so universally recognize the legality of the American marriage which brings a fortune to one of their penniless princelings and sternly refuse to recognize the American divorce that frees the deluded girl shorn of her money.—Chicago Times.

Seriously, what is the use of Illinois republicans making themselves hoarse attempting a boom for Cullom, or anyone else for that matter, when it meets with no response from the people? There is absolutely no call from the rank and file that the republicans of Illinois should champion the attempted presidential boom of Mr. Cullom.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

In Iowa, one of the former strongholds of prohibition sentiment, the principle of local option has just been adopted. In the last few years the sentiment in favor of such a settlement of the liquor question has been greatly strengthened by the fact that under the local option system the "no license" vote has so generally increased.—Boston Advertiser.

A first class wagon road leading out of Quincy 20 miles will bring more traders and more trade into Quincy than any railroad. We incline to the opinion that a first-rate road leading due west from Quincy 25 miles would bring as much trade into Quincy as any two lines of railway that enter the city; possibly as much as all of them do. We can hardly tell how much trade such a road would bring into Quincy. Certainly hundreds of teams, on an average, a day.—Quincy (Ill.) Journal.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Miss Martha Norton, the playwright, is under 30 and very prepossessing.

Miss Mary Wilkins, the writer, is a slender little blue-eyed woman, very refined in appearance.

It is reported that Robert Louis Stevenson, the novelist, intends leaving Samoa to reside in future at Tahita.

The newly appointed minister of finance in Argentina, Senor Briburu, has an unpleasantly suggestive name.

Mr. Tate, the wealthy Englishman who offered this government a fine collection of pictures and $400,000 wherewith to erect a gallery if the government would furnish a suitable site, has withdrawn his offer in disgust at the way in which it was treated.

Dr. Ewald Flugel, who has been engaged to teach English in the new Leland Stanford, Jr., university, is noted throughout Germany as a professor of English philology and as the scholarly editor of the Anglia, a periodical devoted to English studies. He has "winged" his way, so to speak, into fame for his high scholarship.

According to a Harrisburg item, Andrew G. Curtin, the celebrated war governor of Pennsylvania, is now a man of 75 years of age, but retains all of his physical and mental vigor. He is at present immersed in the task of preparing for the publishers his recollections of his busy and eventful political life during the last 40 years. The ex-governor ought to have a message of some worth to communicate to this and future generations.

Paderewski, the great Polish pianist, went to see his double at the Casino last night and was very much struck at the ingenuity of the make-up of his mock brother in art. One thing puzzled the "human chrysanthemum" sadly, however, and that was the concerto that the Casino pianist was announced to play. "But there is no concerto by Rubenstein in G minor," said Mr. Paderewski in a bewildered manner.

PINKHAM'S . PROVERBIAL . PHILOSOPHY . . .

A woman best understands a woman's ills.

At the age of fifty, Mrs. Pinkham publicly commenced her great work of helping such women as could not help themselves. Having devoted her life to the study of female complaints she discovered that a large proportion of the diseases of women have a common origin and may have a common cure. That cure she created, and named Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and how honest was her purpose and trustworthy her judgment is plainly indicated by thousands of such thankful letters as this:

DEAR MADAM.— . . . Would that I could induce all suffering women to give your Compound a fair trial. I must say to you that it is an invaluable medicine. It has been very beneficial to myself and daughter.—Mrs. S. BLAIR, Roanoke City, Va.

Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00.

She looks so saint-like, as she sits,
To-day, in church, you'd swear no leaven
Of vanity was in her heart—
That all her thoughts must be of heaven.

Withdrawn from earth her soul doth seem,
As looking like a little angel,
She sits there while the priest proclaims
To listening ears the glad Evangel.

So far away, yet so intent
On something, she doth seem, one wonders
If on the joys of Paradise
This girl perpetually ponders.

Whate'er it be, 'tis plain to see
That her whole mind is fixed upon it;
Yet 'tisn't heaven she hankers for,
But for a brand-new Easter Bonnet!

The reason for the red sunset indicating a fine day to come is because the amount of vapor floating in the air reflects the beams of the sun and more freely transmits the red rays of light than the colored rays. It is the degree of moisture in the atmosphere which affects the refraction of light, and when red rays of evening are freely transmitted the amount of moisture does not approach the rain point, and therefore, promises the following day to be fine.

THAT SYLVANIA STORY.

Another Side of it in a Statement From the Village Paper.

The Bee some time since gave the particulars of the Schroeder case at Sylvania, wherein it was stated that the parents of the latter claimed he met his death by reason of ill-treatment at the hands of the village authorities. A gentleman called yesterday and requested the publication of the following from the Sylvania Times, which gives the other side of the case. Of course the request is cheerfully complied with, and having allowed statements from all the parties interested, the controversy in newspaper can safely close:

December 26, 1891, Peter Schroeder was arrested for selling intoxicating liquors in violation of an ordinance of the village of Sylvania. On examination he acknowledged that "he had sold beer to anybody who would buy it and pay for it." It was then ordered that he pay a fine of $25 and costs and stand committed until said fine and costs were paid. He was committed to corporation jail and a stove and fuel were provided the same day.

Toward evening of the same day the police justice received notice that a prisoner who had been committed at the same time with Schroeder was sick and could not be properly cared for in that place.

The justice, knowing nothing of the sanitary condition of the place, deemed it prudent to order them both to be removed to their homes until the next Monday, which was done. In the meantime the justice called the attention of the mayor and the health officer to their duty in the matter and requested them to see that the place be put in proper sanitary condition if not already so, or that another place be provided.

A meeting of the council was called for Monday, the 28th day of December, 1891, at 1 p. m. to take action in the matter. A carpenter and a mason were put to work immediately to make the place safe and comfortable.

Schroeder was confined in the said jail only one night, which was this Monday night after said repairs were made; and he was at no time deprived of food or fuel.

Not only was he not deprived of food, but, what is rather an unusual privilege for prisoners, he was taken regularly for his meals to the first hotel in the place.

He paid his fine on the 29th of December, 1891, and left the jail in apparently as good health and as comfortable as usual. He was with a party gathering ice for the LaPoint Bros. about the 11th of January, 1892, and again about ten days after his release.

On one occasion he accosted one of the witnesses against him to whom he had sold beer, jokingly invited him to come into the saloon and get some more beer, and appeared to be in his usual health and spirits.

Instead of dying in 36 hours after leaving the jail, it was about two months. No person was ever denied access to him while in jail, and from Saturday until Monday he was at his own home.

It would require a supernaturally keen vision to discover any connection between his confinement in jail and his death.

The Engineering and Mining Journal says that "a new material for paving is now being introduced in London. It is composed of granulated cork and bitumen pressed into blocks, which are laid like bricks or wood paving. The special advantage of the material lies in its elasticity. In roadways it furnishes a splendid foothold for horses, and at the same time almost abolishes the noise which is such an unpleasant feature of city traffic. In Australia short pieces of such roadway have given good results."

APPEALS TO YOUR INTELLIGENCE.

When all is said there is certainly a wonderful satisfaction when leaving a theater to feel that you have seen something you can recall with delight; to have seen a story developed that has excited your interest; you have laughed uproariously at fun that happened naturally and which was not dragged in, in such a senseless fashion as to be an insult to your intelligence. Such a play is "She Couldn't Marry Three." The plot is wholesome; the fun unceasing; the songs new and catchy; the scenery superb; the climaxes thrilling, and the company headed by that piquant little ray of sunlight, Miss Lillian Kennedy, one of the best on the road.

JUST A LITTLE HELP.

That Is All Which Is Required at This Time of the Year—Do You Know What to Do?

We hear a great deal, just now, about Spring medicines. It is known that people feel run down after the labors and siege of winter, and it is assumed they need a spring medicine. This is not true. Spring medicines are not needed; nature will throw off the rheums in the blood which have accumulated during the winter, if she has only a little help. Nature is able to clean her own house, and take care of her own household, with a little assistance, and a little gentle stimulant is all the spring medicine anyone requires. "But," you may say, "what do you mean by stimulant, and what do I require?" We answer, something absolutely pure, powerful, and which has been proved to abundantly answer the purpose. Unquestionably, whisky, if of the right kind, is the proper thing to use, but unfortunately, there are few good whiskies in the market, and only one which is absolutely pure, and possesses medicinal qualities. That whisky is Duffy's Pure Malt. It has been upon the market for years. It has the unqualified endorsement of physicians and chemists, and it is the only whisky which can be recommended. It is true, certain unscrupulous druggists and grocers seek to sell other and inferior goods, claiming they are equal to Duffy's, but they possess little purity and no medicinal power whatever, whereas Duffy's is specially designed as a medicinal whisky. It would be well to bear these facts in mind when considering the subject of spring medicines, and how to best put the system in shape for the requirements of the season.

PAROXYSMS OF PAIN.

A Definition of What Neuralgia Is and the Discovery of Its Cause. Something of Interest.

If there is anything which the people of America suffer from more than any other it is neuralgia. Strictly speaking, neuralgia means "nerve pain," but there are probably a thousand ways by which it manifests itself. Anyone who has ever suffered from it does not need to be told what it is so far as agony is concerned. It is almost unbearable. It is the worst of all known pains. It drives many people insane. Its causes are many.

Neuralgia is often inherited, but more frequently it arises from a disordered nervous system. It may be months before the distinct paroxysms come, and then of all pains it is the worst. At first, the attacks may be weeks apart; gradually they increase in frequency. Sometimes there may be entire freedom from pain in the intervals between the attacks. Often the skin is red and feverish. It may be several years in developing, the attacks being gradually more severe and well defined. If neglected, it becomes a chronic disease, and if neglected too long, almost incurable.

As neuralgia arises wholly from nervous derangement, a child can see that in order to cure it the nervous system must be renewed. It is easy to say this, but the question naturally arises: "How can I renew my health, my nerves?" Not by liniments, not by lotions, not by cheap nervines, sarsaparillas or decoctions. It requires something that is far advanced beyond all of these things, something that is an absolute discovery. There is but one thing that fills this requirement, and that is the great discovery of Professor Phelps, known as Paine's Celery Compound. This compound really marks a distinct era in medical practice and in the treatment especially of neuralgia. It does not act as other so-called remedies act. It goes directly to the seat of the disease, and treating it at its source cures it completely. If you would like to know what others have found this to be, here is what some have to say:

"Having taken Paine's Celery Compound in a bad case of nervous headache, and it having relieved me of that plague in a short time, I advise every person who has nervous diseases to take it.

"THOMAS ADAMS,
"84 Navy st., Brooklyn, N. Y."

"For the last six years I have been afflicted with neuralgia of the heart and general debility, and all that time have been drugged with morphine and quinine to kill the pain, but no cure. I am now taking Paine's Celery Compound, and it is doing me much good, for I have not had an attack since I commenced using it, and feel like another person.

"Respectfully yours,
"MRS. MARY A. WAGNER,
"Saltillo, Pa."

"On Monday morning, the latter part of March, there was nothing in me but pain and weakness. I had no appetite, and could not have eaten anything if I had wanted to. And my head—how it did ache! The doctor didn't help me, and I wouldn't have given the snap of my fingers for my chances to live. I finally thought of Paine's Celery Compound, which had cured me once before when sick and suffering. Every dose I took gave me strength and to-day I am well and strong. I attribute my recovery entirely to Paine's Celery Compound.

"Yours truly,
"R. S. STYLES,
"Burlington, Vt."

Is it not plain that this great discovery becomes a Godsend to the neuralgic sufferer? Is it not clear that anything which can relieve headache, cure neuralgia and banish pain is a blessing?

OUR RIVERS AND HARBORS

Appropriation Bill Presented to Congress.

Three Hundred Thousand Less Than Last Year.

Five Hundred Thousand for a Lake Channel and Two Hundred Thousand for Toledo.

Washington, March 22.—The house committee on rivers and harbors has completed consideration of the regular river and harbor appropriation bill. It appropriates $20,700,000, which is about $300,000 less than the amount carried by the bill reported by the committee in the last congress, and nearly $4,000,000 less than the amount of the bill which became a law in the last congress.

The greatest feature of the bill is the extent to which the committee enlarges the policy adopted in the last congress of placing some of the most important projects under the contract system, by means of which work can be undertaken with the amount appropriated for the year covered by the bill and contracts entered into for the completion of the work and of its continuance without serious interruption, as has sometimes happened when the continuance of the work was entirely dependent upon river and harbor appropriations for each congress before the work could again be pushed ahead.

This year the commitee authorizes additional contracts to be entered into aggregating $32,151,706, distributed as follows: Charleston, S. C., $2,178,000; Savannah, $3,217,000; Mobile, Ala., $1,443,800; Hudson river, $2,447,906; Columbus river, Ore., $1,700,000; the great lakes, $3,140,000; Point Judith, R. I., $1,175,000; Beaver Dam, O., $650,000; the Mississippi river, $16,000,000.

The bill in authorizing the contract system to be applied to the Mississippi river provides: For improving the Mississippi river from the head of the passes to the mouth of the Ohio river, including salaries, clerical, office, raveling and miscellaneous expenses of the Mississippi river commissioners, and continuing improvements $2,500,000 (the amount directly appropriated in this year's bill) to be expended under direction of the secretary of war, in accordance with the plans, specifications and recommendations of the Mississippi river commission, for the general improvement of the river, for the building of levees, and for surveys, including the surveys from the head of the passes to the headwaters of the river, in such manner as in their opinion shall best improve navigation and promote the interests of commerce at all stages of the river.

Additional contracts may be entered into by the secretary of war for such materials and work as may be necessary to carry on continuously the plans of the Mississippi river commissions or the materials may be purchased and work done otherwise than by contract; to be paid for as appropriations may be made from time to time, not exceeding in the aggregate $2,500,000 per annum for three years commencing July 1, 1893.

For improving the Mississippi river, from the mouth of the Ohio to St. Paul, $1,500,000. Additional contracts may be made by the secretary of war to carry on continuously the systematic improvement of the Mississippi, between the points mentioned or material may be purchased and work done otherwise than by contract, not exceeding in the aggregate $1,500,000 per annum for three years commencing July 1, 1893.

Provided further that the amount appropriated, $700,000, shall be expended from the mouth of the Ohio river to the mouth of the Missouri river, and $800,000 from the mouth of the Missouri to St. Paul and the amounts for which additional contracts are authorized to be entered into shall be expended in like proportions.

Lake Channel.

In the case of the great lakes project $5,000,000 is appropriated in the bill for a ship channel 20 and 21 feet in depth and of a minimum width of 300 feet in the shallows of the connecting waters of the great lakes between Chicago, Duluth and Buffalo.

Further contracts may be made by the secretary of war to carry out the plan proposed by the engineer officer at Detroit, not to exceed the limit named.

In the cases of other improvements put under the contract system, the bill provides that the secretary of war may enter into contracts "to complete the present project for improvements to be paid for as appropriations may be made by law," the aggregate cost of the contracts, it being provided in each case, shall not exceed inclusive of the appropriations made directly in this bill, the cost heretofore named as the limit of cost of completion of the improvements. For these projects there is directly appropriated in the bill the following amounts: Charleston harbor, $300,000, Mobile harbor, $350,000; Savannah river, $425,000; improving the Ohio river by the construction of a movable dam at or below the mouth of the Beaver river, Pa., $100,000; Point Judith harbor of refuge, Rhode Island, $100,000; Columbia river, Oregon, at the cascades, $435,000.

The following is a list of appropriations in excess of $10,000:

THE CURTAIN WAS UP.

What an Editor Saw and the Jokers He Let Loose.

The editor of a journal in the northern part of the state, says a San Francisco paper, chanced to be at the railroad station early one morning as a sleeping car went by, and a sight not meant for his eyes he described thus in his paper:

"A woman was in the washroom of one of the Pullmans taking a bath, naked as Eve before the fall, and she made no effort to pull down the curtain."

The austere postmaster caught sight of the item and actually refused to let the papers go into the mail on the ground that they were obscene literature.

And now all the papers are poking fun at him and saying that he must be some relation to the woman who positively refused to walk across the potato patch because the potatoes had eyes, or to the other woman who wouldn't put a watch in her bosom because the watch had hands.

The Concord, (N. H.) Street Railway company is said to have successfully experimented with the Carpenter system of heating street cars by the electric current. This heater, four of which are used in a car, consists of a tin plate of cast iron two feet long, four inches wide, and an eighth of an inch in thickness. There are two sets of resistances on each plate. The resistances is made of German silver wire placed in porcelain coating, fastened on the plate. This porcelain, or enamel, serves to insulate the wires from the plate, and also prevents consumption by electrolysis and oxidation of the resistance wires. This plate is secured in a substantial manner to the support of the seat just back of the passenger, and is surrounded by open grate work which completely protects the clothing, but does not obstruct the free radiation of heat from the plate. The two resistances are of three amperes and 1 1-2 amperes capacity respectively. The three ampere resistances are connected in series with each other in the car, and the heat envolved from the passage of the current through them is distributed equally to each plate or heater. The 1 1-2 ampere resistances are connected, and operate in the same manner. Thus different temperatures can be given to the car by the use of two simple switches. By turning on both, heat would be given off from the consumption of 4 1-2 amperes.

Readers will remember the horseshoe vein on the forehead which was the badge of all the tribe of Redgauntlet, and there is a well-known family in the South of France which for more than three centuries has boasted a white lock of hair. Says Sir Morrell Mackenzie. The Bourbon nose and lite thick lip of the Hapsburgs are other instances in point.

Consumption, gout, insanity and cancer are the diseases which show the greatest tendency to run in families. Of the hereditary transmission of gout nearly every noble family in Europe can show the most conclusive proof. With regard to cancer the case is not so clear, but statistics prove that heredity can be more or less distinctly made out in a considerable proportion of those who fall victims to the disease.

The Bonaparte family furnishes a remarkable example of the hereditary transmission of cancer. One of the parents of Napoleon I died of cancer of the liver or stomach. He himself died of cancer of the stomach, which also proved fatal to his brother Lucien, and to his sister, the beautiful Pauline Borghese.

A hereditary tendency to disease may not show itself till an advanced period of life; as Prof. Huxley, in his charming autobiographical sketch, has lately told us that a peculiar movement of the hands which was habitual in his mother has recently shown itself in him.

Three times as much spirits are consumed in Scotland, according to the population, as in England.

A Large Number
Of dyspeptics lack the necessary power to digest solid foods, and as stimulants merely excite and weaken the stomach, therefore the immense value of the genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract as a nutritious tonic cannot be overestimated. It not only acts as a tonic, but as nutrient as well, and the most stubborn case of dyspepsia cannot withstand its wonderful power. Write to Eisner & Mendelson Co., 6 Barclay St., New York, for a descriptive pamphlet. Look out for imitations. They are dangerous. The genuine must have the signature of "Johann Hoff" on the neck of every bottle.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE,
38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.
DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession
CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.
IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. FRANCE, after years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.
YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.
DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.
TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, and of every door. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.
MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.
TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.
EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.
FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.
Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.
WONDERFUL CURES No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.
☞ Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 150 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

On The C., H. V. & T. Parlor Cars.

Excursion Business to Toledo This Summer.

A Sketch of G. P. A., W. H. Fisher—Toledo Red Men Going to Dayton—The C., J. & M.—Other Matters of Interest.

The Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo Railroad company deserves the thanks of a long-suffering public. The porters on the new parlor cars will be paid a good salary by the company and will be discharged if they are caught taking tips from the passengers.

This is a step in the right direction. The road expects three handsome new parlor cars by April 1. They will be named Wyandot, Olentangy, and Tyamochtee, and will be put on trains 33, 34, 35 and 36 between Toledo and Columbus. The cost of traveling on these cars will be cut one-half, and with this reduction and the abolishing of tips the public can travel comfortably and cheap.

Toledo Red Men Going.

H. A. Wilson, district passenger agent of the C., H. V. & T., has just arranged with the six tribes of Red Men in Toledo to run an excursion for them to the state pow-wow and gathering of braves at Dayton May 12. A large number of Toledoans will attend.

To Help Toledo.

Said Moulton Houk, general passenger agent of the Ohio Central lines: "It looks as if the coming season would be a big one for Toledo in the way of excursion business. The local passenger committee's efforts met with such success last year that the members feel satisfied that their duty is to boom Toledo as a convention city, and consequently the coming season the local lines will unite in offering inducements to all associations and other bodies looking about for a central, convenient place of meeting."

The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, the Lake Shore and the Ohio Central lines last year did the largest excursion business in their history and the coming season promises to be still better.

The Toledo passenger committee will hold its next meeting next Tuesday, and at that time the matter of excursion rates to prevail to Toledo and tributary territory will probably be taken up.

The C., J. & M. Railroad.

General Manager F. B. Drake, of the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw Railroad company, has issued a circular to the effect that the new company will take possession of the road April 1.

A Word About Mr. Fisher.

One of the most popular railroad men in this territory is W. H. Fisher, general passenger agent of the C., H. V. & T., who dropped into the city to-day. Mr. Fisher is a Buckeye out and out. He is 37 years of age and has been in the railroad business 12 years. H received his early training under C. H. Rockwell, present general superintendent of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad, when Mr. Rockwell was auditor and general passenger agent of the Indianapolis, Peru & Chicago railway in 1880.

Mr. Fisher was also ticket agent of the Wabash for a number of years, and left that road to accept a position as traveling agent of the Indianapolis Journal. After three years' service on the Journal he accepted the appointment of general agent of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road at Indianapolis.

He held that position for three years and made himself felt in railroad circles. When Mr. Saul became general manager of the Ft. Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville, in 1890, he appointed Mr. Fisher general passenger and ticket agent. He had been with this road but one year when he received the appointment to his present position on the C., H. V. & T.

He has done much toward building up the business of the Buckeye Route, and has made many friends for himself and the road.

Cinders Here and There.

Secretary Gmckel will issue a call to-day for the meeting of the Toledo Passenger committee, Tuesday, March 29.

J. M. Osborn, division freight agent of the Wabash, returned this morning from St. Louis. He leaves this afternoon for Buffalo.

The Toledo coal officials are at Pittsburg to-day. It is expected that they will finish their business and be home to-morrow morning.

The new Toledo time table was issued to-day by Gates' ticket office. It gives the whole thing in a nut shell and should be pasted in the hat.

The Cleveland passenger committee met yesterday and agreed on a one fare rate for the round trip to the I. O. O. F. meeting at that city, May 17 to 21.

A. E. Robbins, superintendent; C. B. Duffy, purchasing agent; W. H. Fisher, general passenger agent and F. B. Everett, auditor of the Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo railroad, are in the city to-day.

Local freights 18 and 19 on the Toledo & Ohio Central have heretofore carried passengers, but on account of the new train just put on, they will not handle any passenger business hereafter.

The C., H. V. & T. has received five handsome new day coaches. The first one came up to Toledo last night. They are beautifully finished and well illuminated. The conductor leaves his lantern on the platform and reading at night is a pleasure.

The passenger agents of the C., H. & D., the W. & L. E. and the C., H. V. & T. are making a strong fight for the G. A. R. business to Piqua. The whole territory is being scoured thoroughly by representatives of each line.

AFFAIRS IN MEXICO.

Treveno Not a Candidate for the Presidency.

The Election of Barrios Believed to be Favorable to a Central American Union.

City of Mexico, March 22.—General Treveno, who has been mentioned as a candidate for the presidency of this republic, denies that such is the case, and declares that the re-election of President Diaz is necessary for the prosperity and welfare of the country.

An earthquake is reported to have occurred in Chiapas in February. A number of houses and trees were levelled by the shock.

A Tegucigalpa dispatch says that the feeling there is that the election of Barrios as president of Guatemala is an indication of Central American peace. He is believed to favor a Central American union.

A lecture will be delivered here soon by General O. O. Howard before the Christian association.

San Salvador, March 22.—The report that President Barrios, of Gantemala, favors a Central American union, is causing uneasiness here, where the idea of union has not been popular since the conflict with the former Barrios. Salvador is apprehensive that a union would result in the little state being entirely overshadowed by its neighbors.

BETWEEN TWO EDITORS.

St. Marys, O., March 22.—(Special)—The republicans last night nominated John L. Sullivan, editor of the Graphic, for mayor, and since D. A. Clark, editor of the Argus, is the democratic candidate for the office, the mayoralty contest will be the hottest ever known here.

Kidney affections of years standing cured by Simmons Liver Regulator—J. W. Poynts.

THE FIRST WRECK.

The Findlay, Ft. Wayne & Western Has a Smash Up.

Findlay, O., March 22.—(Special)—The first wreck of any consequence that ever took place on the Findlay, Ft. Wayne & Western road occurred near this city last evening.

Train No. 4, east bound, due here at 3:05 p. m., left the track about two miles west of the L. E. & W. junction at West Park. The engine reeled over on its side and is badly wrecked. The engineer, E. R. Whitt, and his fireman, Young, were badly injured. The passengers, about twenty in number, got a lively shaking up, but all escaped with but a few slight bruises.

BELLEVUE NOMINATIONS.

Bellevue, O., March 22.—(Special)—At their convention last evening the republicans made the following nominations: Mayor, Dr. G. S. Lauterman; clerk, W. H. C. Standart; marshal, J. P. Korner; treasurer, H. B. Acker; sealer of weights and measures, E. E. Hancock; water works trustee, John Gallup; cemetery director, John Greenslade; members of board of education, W. H. Dimick, A. B. Viall; councilmen, First ward, Wm. Shoch; Second, T. H. Molland; Third, Geo. James. Geo. Dillon; Fourth, Chas. F. Lonz; assessor, First ward, George Barber; Second, W. H. Benn; Third, N. Goheen; Fourth, H. M. Cook.

WAS THERE A JOB IN IT?

Reported that Shaefer's Cue Ball Was "Fixed."

Sporting Gossip from All Over the Land—Cleveland Defeats Chicago—Base Ball Mention.

Ives has received a challenge from Slosson in the following language:

"Will allow you $250 for expenses to play for emblem in New York. Sure of a $3,500 house at Lenox lyceum. Please answer."

Ives answered the student's message refusing to accept his terms. The match must be in Chicago if played.

Ives, who has accepted an engagement to play in Paris, has received a cablegram stating that his terms were satisfactory and to come on when he liked. The cable also congratulated him upon his victory. He will leave for Paris immediately after his match with Slosson.

Reports from Chicago are to the effect that Schaefer was beaten in the recent match with Ives because of the frightful irregularity of the balls. It is said that Schaefer's ball in particular was so untrue as to be noticeable in the erratic nature of its rolling as it traveled about the table.

With such the case much of the general sentiment that Schaefer permitted himself to be beaten in order that Slosson might be obliged to play Ives, will be abandoned. In the meantime it is noticeable that a large number of people expressed the belief that Schaefer would feel gratified in the face of defeat that Slosson must meet Ives according to the terms of the New York man's challenge.

The result of the game Saturday night will not in the least affect the general opinion as to the merits of the players. Schaefer's average was so ridiculously low as to make his score appear like a farce, while Ives' score was not one of sufficient merit to lead people to believe that he is yet worthy to be called America's champion.

College Ball.

The official board of the new college organization, the Athletic League of Ohio Colleges, met in Chillicothe to arrange the base ball schedule for the spring games. Hulburt, of Marietta; Foster, of Ohio university; Schell, of Wittenberg, and Fanning, of Otterbein, were in attendance.

Each college seemed determined to make the organization a success, and a very harmonious meeting was held. The following schedule of games was adopted: Otterbein at Ohio, April 30; Otterbein at Wittenberg, May 7; Ohio at Marietta, May 19; Wittenberg at Ohio, May 20; Marietta at Otterbein, May 28.

After some discussion it was decided to hold the first state field day at Wittenberg, June 3.

Our Own Sunday.

President Williams has sent to the Bee a copy of his latest bulletin. In it he gives the information that Arthur Sunday, the outfielder, has been signed. He also gives the following list of men who have not been assigned places: E. McDonald, P. Lyons, Harry O'Day, Joseph Ardner and W. S. DeLaney, second basemen; Andrew Knox, first baseman; S. R. Camp, third baseman; John Burns, short-stop; John Gans and James Daly, outfielders; Ed O'Neill, L. Johnson, J. M. Kennan and W. R. Bishop, pitchers. President Williams asks the various clubs to notify him at once whether they want any of these men so that he can release all that are left.

Good Rivalry.

Columbus and Toledo will always be rivals, and the contest this year will be more fierce than ever. The "sluggers" want the first game and this is the way the way the Columbus Dispatch speaks of the contest:

"It is very important that 'The Sluggers' win the first game of the season with Toledo, as the event is to be made one of the epochs in the next history of Columbus, which, by the way, Bill Thoman is liable to spring on the unsuspecting public most any time. A brass band and parade are to herald the game, and the 'black devils' from the shores of the Maumee must be whipped sure."

Tomney Dead.

Toledo ball patrons well remember little Tomney, who turned a hand-spring after one of Perry Werden's ground hits at Speranza park, and will be pained to learn that his death has occurred at Reading, Pa., at the age of 29. He leaves a widow and one child. Tomney commenced his base ball career in Columbus and later played the position of short-stop for the Binghamton and Scranton clubs in 1887, Allentown 1888, Louisville 1889-90, and Lincoln, Neb., 1891. Tomney's only weakness was his inability to hit the ball and when he made a home run off Ed Cushman in this city the bleachers gave him due reward.

Notes.

Louisville will release the Gladiator and sign "Chicken" Wolf.

The stormy weather of to-day will delay work on the new ball park.

Cleveland defeated Chicago at Hot Springs yesterday by a score of 19 to 15.

Many ball cranks will take a trip to the new grounds Sunday to get the "lay of the land."

O'Day and Jantzen will probably be the battery for Columbus in the opening game with Toledo.

Gus Schmelz smiles with contentment when he thinks of the success of his Western league undertaking.

Sunday games in the National league will be confined to the St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Baltimore and Washington clubs.

Wabash to St. Louis.

BISHOP LEONARD.

His Visit to Toledo in April to Confirm Classes.

Bishop Leonard will arrive in Toledo on Thursday, April 7, and remain in the city some time, visiting the churches in Toledo and vicinity. He will conduct the confirmation services at Trinity church, April 10.

OPENING SESSION

Of the Social Purity Conference This Evening.

This equinoctial storm should not interfere with the attendance at the Social Purity conference which opens in St. Paul's M. E. church this evening. Rev. Jeannette L. Olmstead, Rev. S. D. Hutsinpiller and others speak to-night, and the Cecilia quartet will furnish excellent music for both evenings. Mrs. Clara Hoffman, who speaks on "Our Legacy to the Future" to-morrow evening, is a national lecturer for the W. C. T. U., and a very eloquent speaker. Miss Olmstead is state superintendent of the Social Purity department, Ohio W. C. T. U.

BROKE UP IN A ROW.

Stormy Meeting of the Building Trades Council.

Charges Made that Prominent Officers Belong to the A. P. A. and Good Union Men are Knifed by the Associat on.

The Building Trades' council met in regular session last evening, with nothing before it but routine business and the reports of some special committees. Nothing indicated that business out of the usual order would be before the body, and that its consideration would only be postponed by the breaking up of the meeting in disorder and without adjournment. This, however, was what did occur, and a most unfortunate thing for all concerned it is.

The trouble was precipitated by a duly authorized delegate, who took the floor and made the charge that prominent officers in the Building Trades council and a number of the delegates were members of the secret anti-Catholic organization known as the American Protective association; that these men are by their pledge to this association bound to hinder workingmen of the Catholic faith from securing employment or from retaining it, and were therefore ready to break, and did break, the pledges they had made as fellow craftsmen with a trade organization to stand by one another.

Pandemonium reigned in the council from the time the charges were made until the final breaking up of the meeting, which was brought about without any action being taken, and without regular adjournment.

This, unhappily, must be regarded as the beginning of most serious trouble for organized labor in Toledo. A prominent union man, one who has suffered much and done good work in behalf of organization, said to a Bee this morning:

"We may as well face the facts. Every labor organization in this city is honeycombed by the A. P. A. Some of the most devoted and single-minded representatives of labor in the city are mentioned by name in the A. P. A. meetings as men who are to be ostracised and boycotted by its members. Men who belong to labor organizations with these victimized men join in this hue and cry. I am glad, for one, the question came up in the Building Trades council. The building trades have work cut out before them for this spring which they could attend to, and which would benefit every laborer involved, but they cannot do it if their camp is filled with traitors. We hate to have our dissensions go to the papers, but this thing has got to be fought out, and it can't be kept a secret. We can't fight the bosses and the scabs in our trades, and at the same time have supposed-to-be union men fighting us, and knifing us in the back at the command of some other organization."

This is the situation as seen by men within labor's ranks. It is very serious, and it may result in the destruction of strong and useful labor organizations. Whom will it benefit?

PATRONS OF INDUSTRY.

Annual Convention of the Supreme Association

At the Burnett House—The Supreme Officers Present—Executive Session This Forenoon—Will be Here Three Days.

The annual convention of the supreme association of the Patrons of Industry of the United States opened this morning in the Burnett house parlors.

One of the objects of the meeting is to make the annual settlement of accounts with the supreme officers. Five of the six members of the general executive board are here and were in secret session all morning.

It is hinted that the meeting has a political significance, and that many of the planks of the constitution recently adopted at St. Louis will be considered and probably some action taken.

The following are the supreme officers present:

M. H. Smith, Caro, Mich.
Geo. A. Bennett, Marengo, Ill.
M. A. Hogmire, Bangor, Mich.
U. H. Lake, Rood, Mich.
Philip S. Dorland, Dean's Corners, N. Y.

Mr. O. H. Lincoln, of Marengo, Ill., a delegate, is also present.

Mr. Smith, secretary of the association, was seen by a Bee this noon.

"Our sessions," he said, "are strictly private, and I can give you but little information as to what we are doing."

"Do you contemplate taking any political action at this meeting?"

Mr. Smith smiled. "I am not saying a word. We are not organized for political purposes, you understand."

"Will the St. Louis platform be discussed?"

"I really cannot say a word regarding that matter."

The other members were equally reticent. All sessions will be held at the Burnett.

Henry H. Cushing will go to Chicago Friday.

Mrs. Stem, of Bluffton, O., is in the city for a few days.

Nothing has been heard of M. I. Wilcox since his arrival at Hot Springs.

Rev. Charles Scadding went to Detroit this morning and spoke at the noon-day service held at St. Paul's church of that city, and will also conduct the evening services. Rev. Rufus Clark, pastor of that church, will return with Rev. Scadding, and conduct noon-day services at Trinity church in this city to-morrow noon.

Miss Clara Epstein went to Detroit yesterday for a good-by visit with friends. She goes to Erie, Pa., the 28th to take a position in a wholesale millinery and dry goods house. Her many Toledo friends and patrons will regret her departure, but will be glad to know that the change is in the way of a business promotion.

Rev. R. W. Munson, who has been located in Singapore for four years, in charge of a large school there, writes his brother, C. W. Munson, that himself and family will return to America this spring for a year's rest. They are probably now on the way, and may be expected home about May 1.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Edward Heffron invited a number of her friends to meet Mrs. John Shepardson, of Mansfield, Mass. Mrs. Fred D. Heffron assisted in receiving the guests. The rooms were beautifully decorated with palms, azaleas and cut flowers. Dainty refreshments were served, and a social afternoon enjoyed. The hours were from 4 to 6, and about 45 ladies were present. Some of the ladies were: Mesdames Dowling, Dorr, Hayes, Turner, Scammell, Bentley, Phelps, Tryon, Myers, Beely, Miss Marsh, of Kentucky; Miss Hayes, Sadie Hayes, Taylor Severance, Chapman and others.

NERVOUS AND FAINT.

Are Women Slaves to Their Nerves?

Women are great sufferers from nervousness, weakness, nervous prostration and debility. Thousands droop and languish in the close, confined shops, factories or offices, and hundreds of thousands wear out their nerve power in household cares and work. This is especially true during the spring months, when Spring Debility makes them much worse.

It is a fact also that no disease in the world has ever left such a train of invalids in its track—invalids who suffer from both nervous and physical weakness and prostration.

What wonder that they become worn out in nerve and vital power, and have great weakness, exhaustion, pain in back and limbs, malaria, and the distressing female complaints which are always caused by loss of vital strength!

The great nerve invigorator and female restorative is Dr. Greene's Nervura. No remedy in the world is so sure to bring back the bloom and color to the cheek, the brilliancy to the eyes, the elasticity to the step, the strength and vitality to the unstrung, shattered and worn out nerves. IT IS THE GREATEST OF ALL UTERINE TONICS AND REGULATORS, and cures all female weakness and disease. Use it this spring and get back your strength and vigor. Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists, $1.

"I had very severe headaches lasting three days. A loss of memory, would have to stop and think what I had to do, and was bothered very much. I had inward spasms, was very hysterical; would cry all day for nothing. I would drop anything out of my hand, and my speech was affected. I took Dr. Greene's Nervura, and it has been the greatest blessing to me and my husband, who, before, never knew if he should find me alive when he returned each night. I FEEL SO THANKFUL FOR WHAT DR. GREENE'S NERVURA HAS DONE FOR ME that I should need a whole page praising it.

MRS. LUCY SOUYA,
885 Ninth ave., New York City."

Dr. Greene, the successful specialist, in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th street, New York, can be consulted free, personally or by letter. Call or write to him about your case or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining your disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free.

LOOK AT THIS.

Are these not healthy and bright children? Their appearance does not misrepresent them; they are both healthy and bright. They are the son and daughter of Mr. J. P. Wiley, of Dorchester, Mass., and he has an interesting story to tell in regard to them. The story is as follows:

"In 1885 my wife, accompanied by my little boy, at that time 11 months old, was visiting relatives in Scranton, Penna. The little fellow was suffering untold agony cutting his teeth. My wife was told to try Dr. Hand's Teething Lotion. The effect was magical. It did not stupefy the child, as most remedies of this character do; it simply soothed the pain of the burning and aching gums. I might write a volume, had I the time, praising this remedy, and then not express my feelings or do it justice, it is simply marvellous. After her return to Boston she wanted another bottle, but I found that it was unknown in this city. I corresponded with Dr. Hand, and received in reply a sample of each of his remedies. I used them on both my children, recommended them to all my friends, and have yet to find the person who, after using the remedies, especially Teething Lotion and Colic Cure, that could not praise them. People may say, and have said to me: 'Oh, there must be something in that Teething Lotion that affects a child's brain.' In reply to this, I will say I have two children a boy and girl, who have been treated with Teething Lotion since time of beginning to end of teething, and I challenge any person to furnish two with any clearer brains. I cheerfully recommend them to parents who love their little ones."

A little book, illustrated, full of sense and suggestion, or sample bottle, will be sent to any one in the land, FREE.

IN THE SPRING TIME

You may want to move. Remember, then, that McGlynn, the Summit street liveryman, keeps men, horses and moving vans for the safe removal of all kinds of household goods and pianos. He guarantees prompt and reliable service, and gives especial care to the moving of pianos. 'Phone 1035, or call at office on Summit street, opposite Neuhausels'.

Through Shabby Clothes Small Vices Do Appear.

To the Young Men of the City:

We have put in stock the past week, since Mr. Mockett's return from New York, many new lines of FROCK AND SACK SUITS that have been made to our order, expressly for the young men of the city. They are all of STANDARD MAKE, FIT LIKE A CHARM. Cut in Proper style, and they are made from the same class of fabrics that the swell tailor shops of the country are making their high-priced suits from. If there is any difference in excellence of workmanship, style of fit or finish, it is in our favor, while the difference in the price (which is material) is in yours. To match our productions you would have to pay the tailors about twice as much, and then you could not or would not get a better suit.

To Give You Some Idea We Quote You a Few Prices.

Black, Tan or Brown Cheviot Suits
For $10, $15, $18 and $20.

New Shades and Colorings in Scotch Fabrics
For $10, $12, $15, $18 and $20.

Fine Black Clay Worsteds (with flat binding)
For $15, $18 and $20. (THINK OF IT).

Many Popular and Stylish Fabrics for $10 a Suit.

Gentlemen: We tell you that there is no necessity to go to some high priced tailor and pay $30, $40, or $50—for the same kind of cloths we sell for half the money. We can show you more styles to choose from than they, and we can give you a perfect fit and at the same time save you from 30 to 50 per cent.

Our Fine Ready-to-Wear Clothing is the Best Made.

Should you select a suit from our stock that we cannot fit you with—we will make you same kind of suit (to your measure) without extra charge.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

We would again caution our country friends against getting into the wrong store through mistake—satisfy yourselves you're in Mockett's before you buy.

Our Numbers Are—213-215-217—Summit Street.

You never heard of Mockett selling goods under any other name than his own, but there is a certain firm whose inherited instinct for the touch of gold is greater than its regard for truth or justice, and this firm is constantly telling strangers that their place is Mockett's—Webster says, "a person who knowingly utters a falsehood" is a LIAR—and Webster's pretty near right every time.
